Tie Breaker for 2009-10 Season (from the 2009-10 MHSA Handbook):

1. Playoff sites will be determined by the following procedure: A. Higher seed will host. B. If two like seeds from different divisions meet, the Northern division will host over the Western division which in turn will host over the Southern division. C. If two like seeds from the same division meet, the tie breaker for the Southern division will be 4B over 5B over 3B. For the Northern division the tie breaker will be 2B over 1B. And for the Western division the tie breaker will be 7B over 6B.
2. For the State Championship Game: A. The higher seed will host. B. If two like seeds meet in the championship game and one of the teams did not host a semi-final game in the current playoffs, they will host the championship game. C. If two like seeds from different divisions meet, the Northern division will host over the Western division which in turn will host over the Southern division. D. If two like seeds from the same division meet, the tie breaker for the Southern division will be 4B over 5B over 3B. For the Northern division the tie breaker will be 2B over 1B. And for the Western division the tie breaker will be 7B over 6B.
