

Hudson Haecker of Breck

Kate Neill from Providence Academy

Breck boys soccer goalie, Hudson Haecker '19, had an astonishing month of September with 10 shutouts in 10 games and a 0.00 GAA. The team is 8-0-2 in September. During this time he has given up 0 goals to top teams such as Blake, Holy Angels and SPA. The team is gearing up for the section tournament with very strong teams in Blake, Benilde-St. Margaret's and Totino-Grace.

Statistically, Kate has had an incredible month. She posted a .280 hitting percentage, with 204 kills on 496 swings and only 47 errors. Kate is currently the conference's service aces leader with 46, and has an overall serve receive average of 2.05. Of Kate's 205 receptions, 23% have resulted in a first ball side out for the team. Neill also leads the lions in digs with 153.

Head Volleyball Coach Steph Remley said, “Kate Neill is a the kind of athlete every coach wants in their gym. Kate is gifted, but it’s her work ethic that sets her apart. She has a determination that is not commonly found, and it is contagious to our team and program. Kate has been able to share her high-level understanding of the game with many girls in our program, which has helped to elevated the program as a whole.”
