

Jack McKenna turned in an outstanding month of November on the football field. He excelled in all three phases of the game; offense, defense and special teams. The senior captain had 12 receptions for 306 yards and 4 touchdowns on offense. On defense, he had 17 total tackles, 2 tackles for loss, 1 safety, and 5 passes defended. Special teams were productive as well as Jack tallied 3 kickoff returns for 75 yards. Above all of that, he was a tremendous leader for Breck on and off the field.

Senior setter Sophia Ylinen helped the Breck volleyball team to their first IMAC Conference Championship and undefeated 11-0 season. Six year varsity starter had an incredible month of November registering 45 assists, 27 digs, 15 service aces, and two kills. She ended her season with the highest serve percentage on the team at .930 with 27 serving aces. The two year varsity captain led her team both on and off the court. Her dedication to her teammates is felt throughout the program, lending positivity and encouragement to all athletes at Breck.
