The MOA mileage rate is based on the current published IRS mileage allowance rate of $.72.5 per mile. It is established for the entire fiscal year commencing on July 1 and continuing through June 30 of the following year. All officials assigned for the postseason will receive one-way mileage.

Exception – Football & Soccer Mileage: All postseason driver officials will be paid a round-trip travel allowance from their home sites to the postseason tournament or playoff site except for the official who is a bona fide member of a pool outside his/her local pool. He/she will be paid a rider's allowance from the home site to the postseason tournament or playoff site. Whenever an official traveling to a playoff or tournament through a community where another official working the same playoff or tournament resides, the officials shall carpool and only the driver official will receive the one travel allowance. Both officials will receive the per diem allowance.

Each tournament official receives a $35.00 per diem allowance for each overnight stay at the tournament site away from home for each day the tournament is in session. Each official who travels more than 200 miles one way will also be paid one additional day per diem and provided a room if they stay away from home for an extra night. Any official who officiates a Saturday night contest but chooses not to stay overnight, or an official who rides with an official in this situation shall receive the $35.00 per diem for that day. The MOA office has the discretion to apply the appropriate basketball tournament per diem schedule for postseason football contests.

Flag Football postseason will be assigned by the Montana Flag Football Association.
