

September Students of the Month - Respect

Kindergarten - Mrs. Heuer. Grace Marketon is the Student of the Month in Mrs. Heuer's kindergarten class. Grace is very respectful in our classroom. She listens to the teachers, and she follows directions to get her work done. She tries her hardest to do the best work that she can do, and she gets it done on time. Grace is respectful of all the people and things in our classroom. She takes care of her belongings, and she helps to take care of the things in our classroom. Grace tries to do what is right and she makes good choices for herself. She always has a smile on her face and a positive attitude! We are fortunate to have her in our class. Congratulations, Grace!

Kindergarten - Miss Miller. Bellamy Swanson is the Student of the Month in Ms. Miller's kindergarten class. Bellamy is very respectful in our classroom. He listens to the teachers and he follows directions to get his work done. He tries his hardest to do the best work that he can do and he gets it done on time. He is respectful of all the people and things in our classroom. He takes care of his belongings and he helps to take care of the many things in our classroom. Bellamy tries to do what is right and he makes good choices for himself. He always has a smile on his face and a positive attitude. We are fortunate to have him in our class. Congratulations, Bellamy!

First Grade - Miss Byrd. For Student of the Month September (RESPECT) I chose James Eastling. He shows respect by being kind, saying please and thank you, waiting his turn, helping pass things out, walking, holding the door, and helping others.

First Grade - Mrs. Pavlenko. I would like to recognize Madisyn Ward as my Student of the Month for September. Madisyn is respectful to her classmates and teachers, giving them a warm smile, a friendly good morning, or even a please or thank you for handing out materials. She is also excellent at assisting others if they need a helping hand, whether it's finding their glue stick, picking up their crayon box, or showing them where to hand in their homework, and giving them kindness and encouragement throughout the day. Madisyn is a great listener, reminding classmates to do their best and work quietly. She works hard at keeping her hands and feet to herself and staying inside her own workspace, yet is always paying attention and participating in class often. She has been a wonderful example and an awesome 1st grader so far! Keep up the great work, Madisyn!

Second Grade - Mrs. Carlson. September's theme of respect has been shown by Willow many times in the classroom. Willow continually demonstrates respect and expresses appreciation toward others. I noticed Willow respects her materials and items that belong to other students in the classroom. Willow cares for her classmates and is kind to everyone. I am excited to call Willow the student of the month for September!

Second Grade - Mrs. Eastling. I nominate Rachel Rolfzen as SOTM for Respect! Rachel is always participating and listening when the teacher is talking, giving directions, or working through a lesson. She is kind to fellow classmates and is always willing to help them out. She takes care of the classroom things and her chromebook. I can count on her to put away her materials correctly and immediately follow directions. Keep it up, Rachel!

Third Grade - Mrs. LaMott. Congratulations to Samuel Altamirano Gonzalez for being selected student of the month from Mrs. LaMott's classroom! Samuel is very respectful in our classroom. He listens to the teachers and follows directions to get his work done. He does his very best work at all times. Samuel is respectful of the things in our classroom and his peers' belongings. He does what is right and makes good choices for himself. He always has a positive attitude and a smile on his face. Congratulations Samuel and keep up the good work!

Third Grade - Mrs. Wadman. September's theme of respect has been shown by Jaxon Berg in many different ways. Jaxon is always showing so much respect in the classroom. Jaxon shows respect by always being the first person to want to participate in our morning meetings and not being afraid to help other students when needed. He shows others what it means to be a good friend. I know that Jaxon will have such an amazing year here in 3rd grade! I am proud to name Jaxon student of the month for September!

Fourth Grade - Mrs. Gallagher. The September student of the month for Mrs. Gallagher's class is Jayden Penaz. This month's theme is respect. This also happens to be the number one rule in our classroom! Jayden shows respect for himself, others, property and for learning. He shows respect by raising his hand and waiting his turn. Jayden is helpful and kind to classmates and staff. Jayden has qualities of a good friend and offers positive support to classmates. Another amazing thing about Jayden is his attitude towards school. He enters the room with a smile and is ready to learn! We are so glad to have Jayden in our class! Congratulations Jayden!

Fourth Grade - Mr. Goudy. What a start of the year for Nevaeh Rolfzen! She is so calm, attentive, and kind. I see her being a great classmate in group settings as well as out on the playground during fitness breaks. She comes into school with a smile and has a positive vibe about her that is contagious. The respect that myself and her classmates have received from her thus far, helps us to have better days, and for that we say thank you! Congrats Nevaeh!
