

September Students of the Month - Respect

Gr K - Mrs. Adams. Kaylee Anderson is Student of the Month. Kaylee is kind and considerate to her classmates. She takes care of our classroom and her supplies. Kaylee shows respect by listening to directions the first time and following the school rules. Keep up the good work Kaylee!

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Our September Student of the Month is Kira Swanson. Kira is an extremely respectful kindergartener. She is helpful, kind, and hardworking. These traits make her an excellent member of our classroom community and wonderful young citizen! We are so grateful to have her in our class and can't wait to see where this year takes her!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. I am pleased to nominate Caiden Jencks as a September student of the month! The theme in September is respect. During our Character Strong lessons we learned that respect is seeing good in people and things & treating them with care. We learned how our actions affect others, to make respectful apologies, and to recognize when others are showing respect. Caiden is respectful to his classmates and the school staff. He recognizes the greatness in others and celebrates their successes. Caiden is a kind and hardworking student who brightens our days with his smile and positive attitude.
Congratulations, Ms. Ready

Gr 1 - Ms. Entinger. I nominate Vincent Carr for demonstrating respect. Vinny shows respect to his classmates, his teacher and the school. Vinny respects his classmates by listening when others are talking and inviting others to play with him. He respects his teacher by raising his hand when he has something to share. He shows respect to the school by taking care of his materials and cleaning up after himself.

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. I would like to nominate Ella Grangroth for September student of the month. Ella is always polite in and out of the classroom. She is very considerate and thoughtful in her words and actions. She is respectful of herself, others, and all property. She takes care of everyone and spreads kindness everyday.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Our September student of the month is Addison Coleman! Addison has been a model student for our September theme of respect. She has been respectful to all students and staff. She is aware of other feelings, space, and belongings. Also, she is kind, caring, and thinks of others. We are proud to name Addison our September student of the month! Way to go Addison!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. September's Character Education Trait is Respect. Respect is seeing value in all people and things and treating them with care. In Mrs. Bresnahan's second grade class would like to recognize Evie Burnham as our September student of the month. She is a very respectful student and kind to everyone she meets. She is a joy to have in the classroom. Evie is hardworking and helpful to her fellow classmates. She definitely fits the qualities of September's trait of respect.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. September Student of the Month is Jackson Kittock. Jackson is a very respectful 2nd grader. He is conscientious of his choices, has courage to try new things, and shows he cares by taking care of people and things in and outside of the classroom. He shows responsibility and follows through with his behavior. Jackson is helpful without being asked and is a diligent worker! Way to go Jackson!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Bentley Engstrom is a very respectful 2nd grader. Bentley makes good choices and will always do what is asked of him. Bentley shows respect to other classmates and teachers, caring about their thoughts and ideas. He controls himself appropriately and is willing to work with anyone no matter their differences or similarities. Go Bentley!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Getting back into the routines of school can sometimes be challenging. One student in particular from our class has shown great responsibility and determination to be a positive citizen as she gets back into those routines. Abby Hausladen lets others go first, says please and thank you, and lends a hand when needed. She is a well rounded role model with a positive attitude who focuses on being the best student she can be. Abby has shown a great deal of self control and willingness to be flexible in order to show success. Thank you Abby for keeping a positive mindset, showing others what it is like to be courteous, and being respectful in following school rules while setting a great example for others. Awesome job Abby!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Eve Wegner shows respect by treating other classmates and tools in the classroom with care. Eve is kind and polite, and is always willing to lend a helping hand.

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. "Respect others not because of who they are-but because it's who you are-someone who respects others." Unknown. When looking for a student that shows respect Kaden Snell is one who shows this quality everyday. Kaden is always thoughtful of his classmates, school staff and his school responsibilities. Kaden is the first one to give a reminder and do the right thing in class. Kaden is also really good at using his manners at school! Keep up the great work!

Gr 4 - Ms. Larsen. Colton Duske has shown respect in our class, the hallways, out at recess and in the lunchroom. He is always saying please or thank you and being a great role model for the other students. He does an amazing job working with his classmates and helping them out without being prompted. He is also an awesome listener to others and always has great responses for his peers. Keep up the great work Colton!
