

October Students of the Month - Responsibility

Gr K - Mrs. Adams. Aliah Engstrom is the Student of the Month.. Aliah shows responsibility by taking care of her belongings and knowing where her things are. Aliah is also responsible for her actions and is quick to make a change if needed. Keep up the great work Aliah!

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Our class is selecting Josh Carlson as our October Student of the Month. Josh's responsibility in the classroom shone through in all that he did. He was a caretaker in the classroom and even took on extra responsibility for other student's messes and lapses in responsibility. Unfortunately, Josh's family moved this month and he needed to enroll in a new school. The day after Josh left about half of our Kindergarten class left their water bottles. This was because Josh took on the responsibility of standing near the water bottles at the end of the day and counting down how many were left and finding the students those remaining water bottles belonged to. We know that Josh will do great things at his new school and his responsibility will take him far in life! He, and his responsibility will be greatly missed!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for October is responsibility. We learned that responsibility is to take action and understand the impact of our choices. Taking action can mean doing the right thing or completing the tasks you have been assigned. Understanding the impact of our choices means that our actions matter.

I am pleased to announce Lionel Carr as our student of the month. Lionel has earned this honor by demonstrating a high level of classroom responsibility. He takes pride in doing his best in each and every activity. He is responsible for himself and his belongings and can be depended upon to lend a hand keeping our school neat and clean and to help his classmates in a friendly way. Congrats Lionel!

Gr 1 - Ms. Entinger. I nominate Paige Neufeld for demonstrating responsibility. Paige shows responsibility by taking care of her space and classroom materials. She is able to complete her classroom jobs independently and sets a good example for her classmates.

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. I would like to nominate Tucker Jude for October Student of the Month. Tucker is very dependable, makes good choices in and out of the classroom, and takes accountability for his actions. He looks out for the well-being of others and is friends to all. He takes care of all his materials and uses his time wisely to get all his work done.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Gus Uter is our class's October student of the month! Gus was selected for this honor because he has consistently shown responsibility in everything he does at school! Whether it's completing his work on time, participating actively in class, or helping out his classmates when they need it, Gus is always accountable and reliable. He understands the importance of taking ownership of his actions and choices, and he strives to be a positive member of our class. Congratulations to Gus for being recognized for his outstanding sense of responsibility!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. The character trait for October is responsibility. Responsibility: to take action and understand how our choices affect others, ourselves and the world. Mrs. Bresnahan's Second Grade Class would like to recognize Brayden Noethe as the October Student of the Month. Brayden is always ready and eager to learn. His school work is always turned in on time. He listens attentively to classmates while they are sharing. He is always willing to help out a fellow classmate or to help out the teacher. Brayden takes responsibility for his behavior and actions. Brayden is a great role model for his classmates.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Evi Wendling is a responsible member of her classroom and school community! She is mindful and takes action to understand how her choices affect herself and others. Evi shows responsibility by following the rules, playing fair, doing the work, and by taking care of her materials. Evi also shows responsibility by being mindful of others. She includes others, uses kind words, and is patient and respectful to all. Thank you Evi for being so responsible - you are a beautiful example for us all here at Humphrey Elementary!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Kaitlyn Snell is a responsible member of her classroom and school community! She is mindful and takes action to understand how her choices affect herself and others. Kaitlyn shows responsibility by following the rules, playing fair, doing the work, and by taking care of her materials and others. She includes others, uses kind words, and is patient and respectful to all. Thank you Kaitlyn for being so responsible!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Judy Steen is an exceptional third grader who is kind, patient, and consistently tries her best. She understands and accepts that we all have our own responsibilities and she takes ownership of things that she needs to get done. Judy uses patience if something isn't going the way it normally does. She has a positive "I can" attitude and puts her best foot forward. Judy is determined and motivated, setting a great example for her classmates. She asks questions, focuses, and perseveres even when tasks become challenging. Awesome work Judy!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Quinn Duske shows responsibility by caring for herself, her belongings, and her surroundings. She is proactive in anticipating the needs of others and the classroom. Quinn is responsible for her work and making sure everything is caught up on and done at her best.

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Since the start of school Mason Holland has made many responsible choices in the classroom and with his friends. He has been choosing to do the right thing in tough situations. Mason is also showing responsibility by turning in assignments on time, using his class time wisely, and taking care of his materials in the classroom. I am super proud of the growth he has made this year!

Gr 4 - Ms. Larsen.: Grace Kittock: Grace shows responsibility in her schoolwork by using her time wisely and getting her work done. She is always making sure that she is doing her work correctly and asks for help when she needs it. She also shows self control in the classroom, and is always willing to help others. Keep up the good work Grace!
