

January Students of the Month - Perseverance

Kgtn - Mrs. Adams. Jace Jacobson demonstrates perseverance on a daily basis by trying to do his best in class. Even when learning is tough, Jace keeps working hard and finishes the task. Keep up the good work Jace!

Kgtn - Mrs. Gunderson. Our student of the month for January's theme of perseverance is Jayde Snell. Jayde has shown her tenacious spirit throughout kindergarten. She works hard in the classroom, not only, on her schoolwork but generally to keep our classroom and school a wonderful place to work and play. Jayde comes in every morning with a smile on her face and volunteers to do extra jobs to ready the classroom. She's a go to helper and works hard all day long. Jayde never shies away from a challenge and doesn't give up when things don't go the right way the first time! She has worked hard for the first half of Kindergarten and we cannot wait to see what the future holds for her!

Kgtn - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong topic for January was Perseverance. We learned that Perseverance is pushing yourself to work through challenges and obstacles. I am pleased to nominate Oakley Hudek as our January student of the month. Oakley tries her best each day and asks questions when she needs support. She keeps on track to complete tasks even when things are tough. Oakley is creative to find solutions to challenges and keeps a positive attitude. We are very proud of Oakley!

Gr 1 - Ms. Entinger. I nominate Wyatt Noecker for student of the month. Wyatt shows perseverance by not giving up even when a task may be difficult. He is willing to do things that may not come easy right away. Wyatt sets a good example for his classmates.

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. My January nomination is Sunny Ingram. No matter how hard something may be, Sunny uses her perseverance skills to reach the goal. She continues to work hard in many skills despite the challenges they may pose. She will continue to keep trying and does not like to give up until she gets it right. She is able to correct mistakes until she can fully say she tried her best!

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. It is with great pleasure that we announce Kyle Malik as our class's student of the month for January! Kyle has demonstrated a remarkable work ethic, perseverance, and an unwavering determination to succeed. When faced with a challenge, he has never given up and continued to give his very best. His dedication and never-give-up attitude make him a great role model in our class. We are proud to have him as a member of our class and look forward to seeing all the amazing things he will achieve in the future. Congratulations, Kyle, on this well-deserved honor!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. January student of the month is Blake Gruenhagen. January's characteristic is Perseverance. Perseverance is the ability to work through situations even when there are challenges or obstacles in the way. Blake works hard even when the school work might be challenging. He keeps working until he gets it right. He always has a smile on his face and a positive attitude. Blake is a great role model for his fellow classmates. Keep up the great work Blake.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Miles Arvidson exudes perseverance in everything he does in 2nd grade! He never gives up - even when things are challenging or there are obstacles in his way! He works through whatever task is at hand with a "can-do" attitude, remaining positive, regardless of what the challenge is! Way to go Miles! You are a leader in perseverance in our classroom!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Sophia Klepperich: Sophia is a student who will work hard until the task is accomplished! She never gives up and will try and try again if she needs to. She is always up for a challenge and will try her best. She exudes positivity and determination no matter the challenge.

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Eliana Harteneck is an exceptional third grader who is kind, patient, and always works hard to focus and complete tasks. She understands and accepts that we all have our own responsibilities and she takes ownership of things that she needs to get done. Eliana uses patience and perseverance when it comes to completing school work, along with being patient if something isn't going the way it normally does. She has a positive "I can" attitude and puts her best foot forward. Eliana is determined and motivated, setting a great example for her classmates. She asks questions, focuses, and is willing to do anything she can to help her friends stay on the right track too. Awesome work showing responsibility and perseverance Eliana!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Zeke Radloff shows perseverance by trying and doing his best, even when things are hard. He has been working very hard on having a growth mindset and trying again on things that have been challenging for him in the past. Zeke pushes himself everyday to overcome obstacles. Since the beginning of the year, Zeke has turned many "I can't's" into "I can's".

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Perseverance is doing or completing something despite the difficulty or time to achieve success. Elias Foley has made a lot of growth since the beginning of the year. He asks questions when he needs help, he tries his best and will even try things again. I am very proud to see him persevere and do his best at school!

Gr 4 - Ms. Larsen. Cullen Engstrom has shown perseverance in all of his school work and activities done at school. He is always trying his best and continues to ask questions to clarify and make sure he is doing the work correctly. He is always focused on what he is doing even if the work is hard. Keep up the great work Cullen!
