

March Students of the Month – Cooperation

Gr K - Mrs. Adams. Bethany Poure is our Student of the Month. Bethany shows cooperation by playing with all students in our classroom and is quick to help others especially at clean up times. Bethany is exceptional at making everyone feel included and welcome. Bethany is patient, caring, understanding, and a great friend to others. Keep up the good work Bethany!

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Owen Otto is our March Student of the Month. Owen is a team player and always looks out for his peers. He comes into the classroom each morning full of joy and excitement for his home and school life This positivity remains throughout the day. Owen's smile brightens the room. He works hard and is ALWAYS willing to lend a helping hand, a compliment, or a kind word to his peers and teachers. Owen's infectious positivity, exemplary cooperation, and unwavering helpfulness make him our March Student of the Month!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for March is cooperation. We learned that cooperation is working together to reach shared goals. I am pleased to announce Quinn Mahmens as our student of the month. She is one of the first classmates to invite others to join an activity, she uses problem solving skills, is mindful to share, and is supportive. Quinn demonstrates polite manners and is a kind and helpful citizen both in our classroom and throughout our school. She makes us very proud! Congratulations.

Gr 1 - Ms. Entinger. I nominate Mary Toews for student of the month. Mary demonstrates cooperation by sharing and taking turns with her classmates. Mary works well in a group setting, by being a good sport, problem solving, and supporting others. Mary shows cooperation by doing what will be best for the group and not just herself.

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. My March nomination is Paisley Trisco. Paisley is a team player who demonstrates cooperation daily, whether she is working with a partner or in a group. She has a positive attitude and encourages, helps, and listens to others. She problem-solves to make it to the end goal effectively and efficiently.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Our March student of the month is Harper Werner! She has earned this for demonstrating exceptional teamwork qualities! With a strong work ethic and a kind heart, Harper consistently goes above and beyond to support her peers and contribute to the overall success of her classroom. Her willingness to work together and help others makes her a valuable member of her school community. Harper's thoughtfulness shines through in all her interactions, showing genuine care and consideration for those around her. Whether it's lending a helping hand to a struggling classmate or offering words of encouragement, Harper's empathy and kindness make her a standout student. Her positive attitude and willingness to collaborate make her a role model for her peers and a joy to have in the classroom! Congratulations, Harper, on this well-deserved honor!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. Finn Keskitalo is March Student of The Month for Cooperation. Cooperation is working together to reach a shared goal. Finn works well with all his classmates. He is kind, considerate and very helpful. He is able to listen to others' ideas when working on a common task. Finn has lots of creativity and patience. He is a joy to have in the classroom. Finn is a great role model for his classmates.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Addi Georges is always looking for ways to help others! When she's finished with her work, she is usually found generously offering her time to help others. She takes time to make sure no one is left behind. Addi is an easy friend to work with too! She is flexible and kind and takes time to listen to others and share her feelings and ideas respectfully. Keep up the good work Addi!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Aria Perra is always looking for ways she can assist and help others reach a goal. Aria will generously ask if she can help others or the teacher. Aria is willing to work with others, sharing throughout the activity. Aria is great at participating in class. She will put her best foot forward even if she isn't 100% confident. Thanks for all your help Aria!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. The dictionary defines the word cooperation using the phrase, "working together." Emerson DeHerrera-Branscum does this on a daily basis. When working with partners or small groups, it doesn't matter who Emerson works with. He is always polite to those around him. You can hear him using his manners consistently. For example, if someone goes out of their way to help him, Emerson makes sure to thank that person. Whether it's adults or kids, he works hard to act courteously and is respectful of others' feelings and belongings. He stands up for others as well, knowing that part of cooperation is recognizing everyone's unique capabilities. His ability to cooperate in any setting is very apparent. Keep up the great work Emerson!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Turner Bodin is our Student of the Month for the character trait COOPERATION! Turner shows cooperation by working well with others. He is respectful of differences and ideas. Turner has a positive attitude towards working in a group and is always willing to problem-solve to overcome obstacles. He gets along well with others and is a positive and inclusive part of our classroom and school community. Way to go, Turner!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Cooperation is having the ability to work alongside other people. Ezra Stewart is always willing to work with other students. She plays fair and includes others in the morning, during recess and in small groups. Ezra is a good group member no matter what. She does a great job showing what cooperation is by including and working well with others. Great job Ezra!

Gr 4 - Ms. Larsen. Madeline Dalbec shows cooperation by working well with all of her classmates and getting along with others. She is also a very good listener during class and when others are talking to her. Whenever Madeline is asked to help someone she is very willing to. Keep up the great work Madeline!
