

April Students of the Month – Cooperation

Gr K - Mrs. Adams. Reagan Jenson is the Student of the Month in Mrs. Adams classroom. Reagan shows her courage by being a friend to all, working hard and always trying her best in our classroom. Keep up the good work Reagan!

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Our class is choosing Weston Nendza as our Student of the Month for April. This month's theme of being courageous shines through Wes in many ways. In the beginning of Kindergarten Wes was quiet and not very willing to share his ideas and great sense of humor with his classmates. Now in April, Wes has shown us a completely different side of himself: a student who is continuously funny, thoughtful, and inquisitive. Wes keeps us on our toes and laughing often. It has taken Wes courage to get to this point and we are so glad he has worked so hard to get here. He is a bright spot in our classroom! We are so lucky to have him. Our hope for Wes is that he stays true to himself and keeps brightening people's days with laughter!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for April is courage. We learned that courage is choosing what is helpful, right, and kind - even when it's hard or scary. Throughout the school year, kindergarten students must be brave and demonstrate courage to learn the routines of school, make new friends, and to try new things. We work hard to develop skills to try our best while at the same time having the courage to be willing to learn from mistakes, take risks, and develop grit.

I am proud to nominate Wyatt Strehlow for courage. Wyatt approaches each school day with a brave attitude and demonstrates the ability to try new things - even when it's hard or scary. He is resilient when things don't go his way and has grown significantly in his self management skills! Congrats Wyatt, we are proud of you!

Gr 1 - Ms. Entinger. I nominate Leonardo Munoz for demonstrating courage. Leonardo has demonstrated courage by trying new things. Coming into a new school this year Leonardo has learned new schedules and routines. He has practiced new skills. He stands up for himself when there may be a difficult situation.

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. My April nomination is Alice Mihajlov. Alice displays courage in and outside the classroom by always speaking kindly, being helpful, and doing what is right, even in tough situations. She makes good choices, stands up for others, and is a trustworthy person. She does not let fear get in the way of anything she does.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Jettson Wendling has been chosen as the Student of the Month for April, a recognition that celebrates his outstanding attitude, relentless effort, and willingness to do his best everyday. Jettson's determined attitude towards facing challenges head-on and following instructions on time have made him a leader by example in our class. Whether it's leading by example with tasks in class or offering a helping hand to those in need, Jettson embodies the spirit of leadership and kindness. His positive attitude and commitment to doing his best have not only contributed to his personal growth but have also fostered a supportive and motivating environment for all. Congratulations, Jettson, on this well-deserved honor!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. Our April student of the month is Jaelyn Hirsch. Jaelyn has the courage to always display courteous behavior to everyone she meets. She is very helpful toward her fellow classmates. Jaelyn encourages fellow classmates to do their best. Jaelyn has a very positive attitude toward school. Keep up the great work Jaelyn.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Sophia Acevedo Arroyo is a courageous 2nd grader! I can always look to Sophia to be waiting for her turn in a polite manner. No matter what the challenge is, she works hard, and NEVER gives up! Sophia also makes great personal choices when working or playing in and outside the classroom. I can always count on Sophia to be following directions and doing the right thing at the right time. Keep it up Sophia!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Jacob Nygaard is a courageous student in 2nd grade! He is never afraid to show his authentic self. He is always willing to try new things and answers questions he may not know the answers to. Whenever a challenge is presented to Jacob, he will work to the best of his ability to take it head on, always putting his best foot forward! Jacob makes great choices and never feeds into peer pressure. I can always count on Jacob to be a courageous and kind classmate!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Courage is a valuable character trait that means someone perseveres and shows strength. One student in particular has shown great growth in being courageous this school year. Ernest Brien Jr. has pushed himself to think of others first and is very honest and trustworthy. Throughout the school year Ernest has built others up, encouraged them, and holds his classmates accountable to being kind. He will stand up to someone if they are acting otherwise. Ernest makes his friends feel special and they know they can rely on him. Ernest has been seen putting the needs of others first to make sure everyone is included in a game or activity. He communicates clearly to show just how much he cares and it shows his kindness towards others. Thank you for being there for your peers Ernest. Continue being courageous doing great things!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Lily Jaworowski is our student of the month for the character trait COURAGE. Lily shows courage by handling challenges academically and socially with a positive attitude. She chooses the right thing, even when it's hard or not the popular choice. Lily has grown this year in her ability to stand up for herself and her friends. Lily is kind, respectful, brave, and makes it her mission to overcome any obstacle in her way. Way to go, Lily!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. "It takes courage to grow up and become who you really are." E.E. Cummings. When looking for a student with courage there is one that comes to mind right away and that is Kaelyn Knick. Kaelyn is always willing to be a friend to others. She also stands up for what is right. She is the first to remind others and is always accepting of all. It takes courage to be your true self and I believe Kaelyn shows that each day!

Gr 4 - Ms. Larsen. Mathias Toews has shown courage in everything that he does. He shows courage even when a task or schoolwork is challenging. He continues to give the task or the schoolwork a chance and knows to ask for help if needed. He also has been doing the right thing in the classroom and helping out other classmates without being asked. Keep up the amazing work Mathias!
