

September Students of the Month – Respect

Kindergarten - Mrs. Heuer. Olivia Eastling is the Student of the Month in Mrs. Heuer's kindergarten class for the theme of respect. Olivia is very respectful in our classroom. She listens to the teachers, and she follows directions to get her work done. She tries her hardest to do the best work that she can do, and she gets it done on time. She is respectful of all the people and things in our classroom. She takes care of her belongings, and she helps to take care of the many things in our classroom. Olivia tries to do what is right and she makes good choices for herself. She always has a smile on her face and a positive attitude. We are fortunate to have her in our class. Congratulations, Olivia!

Kindergarten - Ms. Miller. Radley Dell is the student of the month in Miss Miller's kindergarten class. Radley is very respectful in our classroom and school. He listens to all teachers and follows directions to get his work done. He tries his hardest and does his best to get things done on time. He is respectful of all people and of the things in our classroom. He takes care of his belongings and helps to take care of things in our classroom. Radley tries to do what is right and makes good choices. He always has a positive attitude and outlook throughout the day. Congratulations Radley!

Grade One - Miss Byrd. For Student of the Month September, Respect, I chose Dawson Luhman. He shows respect by listening to instructions, following directions and rules, enforcing rules/modeling so others can see, waiting his turn and helping others.

Grade One - Mrs. Pavlenko. I would like to recognize Oakley Ellman as my Student of the Month for September. Oakley is respectful to her classmates and teachers, giving them a warm smile, a friendly hello, or even a please or thank you for handing out materials. She is also excellent at assisting others if they need a helping hand, whether it's picking up their crayon box, finding someone to play with during Free Choice time, or showing them where to put their library books, and giving them kindness and encouragement throughout the day. Oakley is a great listener, reminding classmates to do their best and work quietly. She works hard at keeping her hands and feet to herself and staying inside her own workspace, yet is paying attention and participating in class often. She has been a wonderful example and an awesome 1st grader so far! Keep up the great work, Oakley!

Grade Two - Mrs. Carlson/Mrs. Sanken. Aleska Herrera Arauz has shown September's theme of RESPECT in so many ways. Aleska shows respect by handling her school supplies, desk and materials with care. Kindness is shown to her classmates and adults. I love her hugs! She does her best with all situations and if something isn't going quite right, she has a great attitude and is flexible while solving problems. I am proud to announce Aleska as September's Student of the Month!

Grade Two - Mrs. Eastling. I nominate Isaac Mochinski as SOTM for Respect! Isaac is always participating and listening when the teacher is talking, giving directions, or working through a lesson. He is kind to fellow classmates and is always willing to help them out. He takes care of the classroom things and his chromebook. I can count on him to put away his materials correctly and immediately following directions.

Grade Three - Mrs. LaMott. Congratulations to Brinley Jobe for being selected student of the month from Mrs. LaMott's classroom! Brinley is very respectful in our classroom. He listens to the teachers and follows directions to get his work done. He does his very best work at all times. Brinley is respectful of the things in our classroom and his peers' belongings. He does what is right and makes good choices for himself. He always has a positive attitude and a smile on his face. Congratulations Brinley and keep up the good work!

Grade Three - Mrs. Wadman. September's theme of respect has been shown by Elizabeth Cafferty in many different ways. Elizabeth is a role model for others around her. She consistently treats peers, teachers, and staff with kindness and consideration. Whether it's listening during class, offering support to classmates, or following school rules with a positive attitude. Elizabeth is going to have such an amazing year here in 3rd grade! I am proud to name Elizabeth student of the month for September!

Grade Four - Mrs. Gallagher. The September student of the month for Mrs. Gallagher's class is Kensi Mickolich. This month's theme is respect. This also happens to be the number one rule in our classroom! Kensi shows respect for herself, others, property and for learning. She shows respect by raising her hand and waiting her turn. Kensi is helpful and kind to classmates and staff. Kensi has qualities of a good friend and offers positive support to classmates. Another amazing thing about Kensi is her attitude towards school. She enters the room with a smile and is ready to learn! We are so glad to have Kensi in our class! Congratulations Kensi!

Grade Four - Mr. Goudy. Laney Ahrendt is the student of the month for September's theme of respect. She is hard working, a great listener, and participates regularly. In terms of being a partner, she is fantastic! She follows directions, stays on task, and is accurate. She treats her classmates, teachers, and other staff members with respect and shows tremendous self control. I have already built up a high level of trust for her only a month into the school year. I'm excited to be her teacher this year!
