

September Students of the Month - Respect

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Our September Student of the Month for Respect is Austin Gomez-Sayadeth. Austin exemplifies respect in how he interacts throughout kindergarten. He uses manners, waits turns easily, and is helpful to his friends and teachers. Austin's respect for learning, his class, and himself is evident throughout our day and we are so thankful to have him in our Kindergarten class.

Gr K - Ms. Ready. I am pleased to nominate Michael Stoddard as September student of the month! The theme in September is respect. During our Character Strong lessons we learned that respect is seeing value in people and things & treating them with care. We learned how our actions affect others, to make respectful apologies, and to recognize when others are showing respect. Michael is respectful to his classmates and the school staff. He is a kind and hardworking student who brightens our days with his smile and positive attitude. Congratulations, Ms. Ready

Gr 1 - Mrs. Adams. Lucan Davidson is the Student of the Month! Lucan is kind and considerate to his classmates. He takes care of our classroom and his supplies. Lucan shows respect by listening to directions the first time and following the school rules. Keep up the good work Lucan!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. I want to nominate Robbie Nygaard for September Student of the Month. Robbie is always polite in and out of the classroom. He is very considerate and thoughtful in his words and actions. He is respectful of himself, others, and all property. He is an honest and dependable student and friend!

Gr 1- Mr. Paulson. We are thrilled to announce that our September Student of the Month is Caiden Jencks! Caiden has consistently demonstrated remarkable qualities that embody the spirit of our school community. Caiden's kindness shines brightly in every interaction, making our classroom a warm and welcoming place for everyone. His respect towards peers and teachers alike fosters a positive and inclusive environment, setting a wonderful example for all. Moreover, his enthusiastic attitude towards learning is truly inspiring; it encourages us all to strive for our best each day. Congratulations, Caiden! Keep up the fantastic work!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. The character trait for September is respect. Respect: is seeing value in all people and things and treating them with care. Mrs. Bresnahan's Second Grade Class would like to recognize Tucker Jude as the September Student of the Month. Tucker is very caring and courteous to all his classmates. He shows great respect for teachers and students. He is always ready and eager to learn. He is always willing to help out a fellow classmate or to help out the teacher. Tucker takes responsibility for his behavior and actions. Tucker is a great role model for his classmates.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Addison Coleman is a very respectful 2nd grader. She is conscientious of her choices, has courage to try new things, and shows she cares by taking care of people and things in and outside of the classroom. She shows responsibility and follows through with her behavior. Addison is helpful without being asked and is a diligent worker! Way to go Addison!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. September (Respect): Logan Gloege. Logan is a very respectful 2nd grader. Logan makes good choices and will always do what is asked of him. Logan shows respect to other classmates and teachers, caring about their thoughts and ideas. He controls himself appropriately and is willing to work with anyone no matter their differences or similarities. Go Logan!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Getting back into the routines of school can sometimes be challenging. One student in particular has shown great responsibility and determination to be a positive citizen as she gets back into those routines. Maggie Antilla lets others go first, says please and thank you, and lends a hand when needed. She is a well rounded role model with a positive attitude who focuses on being the best student she can be. Maggie has shown a great deal of self control and willingness to be flexible in order to show success. Thank you Maggie for keeping a positive mindset, showing others what it is like to be courteous, and remembering to use your manners when interacting with adults, as well as other students.

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Our Student of the Month for Respect is Mae Erickson! Mae shows respect by treating other classmates and tools in the classroom with care. Mae is kind and polite, and is always willing to lend a helping hand. Keep up the respectful attitude, Mae!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Dockendorf. Emily Peterson has shown respect in our class, the hallways, out at recess and in the lunchroom. She is always saying please or thank you and being a great role model for the other students. She does an amazing job working with her classmates and helping them out without being prompted. She is also an awesome listener to others and always has great responses for her peers. Keep up the great work Emily!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. "Respect others not because of who they are-but because it's who you are-someone who respects others." Unknown. When looking for a student that shows respect Hael Karels is one who shows this quality everyday. Hael is always thoughtful of his classmates, school staff and his school responsibilities. Hael is good at giving reminders about doing the expectations. He is also a great example of showing how to talk to classmates as well as treating others. Keep up the great work!
