

October Students of the Month - Responsibility

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for October is responsibility. We learned that responsibility is to take action and understand the impact of our choices. Taking action can mean doing the right thing or completing the tasks you have been assigned. Understanding the impact of our choices means that our actions matter. I am pleased to announce Aurora Gloege as our student of the month. Aurora has earned this honor by demonstrating a high level of classroom responsibility. She takes pride in doing her best in each and every activity. She is responsible for herself and her belongings and can be found lending a hand to help her classmates in a friendly way. Congrats Aurora!

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Henry Schwerin is our October Student of the Month. Henry exhibits responsibility in all that he does in Kindergarten. Some great examples of Henry's responsibility are cleaning up after himself, taking ownership over mistakes or parts of conflict, and keeping track of his things as well. One exceptional thing Henry does that shows great responsibility is helping his peers keep our busy buckets organized for the whole class. When he sees there is a mess he offers to clean it for the class and has worked hard to help keep this part of our classroom very organized. We are so thankful to have Henry and his great responsibility in our classroom!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Adams - Quinn Mahmens is the Student of the Month. Quinn shows responsibility by taking care of her belongings and knowing where her things are. Quinn is also responsible for her actions and is quick to make a change if needed. Keep up the great work Quinn!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. I would like to nominate Axel Jaramillo for October student of the month. Axel is very dependable, makes good choices in and out of the classroom, and takes accountability for his actions. He looks out for the well-being of others and is friends to all. He takes care of all his materials and uses his time wisely to complete all his work.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Our Student of the Month for October is Bethany Poure! Bethany is a wonderful example of what makes our school a great place. She always respects her classmates and teachers, making everyone feel valued and important. Bethany works very hard at everything she does, and her efforts inspire others to do their best too. Her cheerful attitude brings smiles to everyone around her, creating a happy and friendly classroom. Bethany's commitment to learning not only helps her grow but also lifts the spirits of our whole school community. We are so proud of Bethany and are excited to see all the great things she will accomplish!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. The character trait for October is responsibility. Responsibility: to take action and understand how our choices affect others, ourselves and the world. We would like to recognize Beau Homola as the October Student of the Month. Beau is always ready and eager to learn. His school work is always turned in on time. He listens attentively to classmates while they are sharing. He is always willing to help out a fellow classmate or to help out the teacher. Beau takes responsibility for his behavior and actions. Beau is a kind hearted student, who is a joy to have in the classroom.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Ella Grangroth is a responsible member of her classroom and school community! She is mindful and takes action to understand how her choices affect herself and others. Ella shows responsibility by following the rules, playing fair, doing the work, and by taking care of her materials. Ella also shows responsibility by being mindful of others. She includes others, uses kind words, and is patient and respectful to all. Thank you Ella for being so responsible - you are a beautiful example for us all here at Humphrey Elementary!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Brindalynn Milz is a responsible member of her classroom and school community! She is mindful and takes action to understand how her choices affect herself and others. Brin shows responsibility by following the rules, playing fair, doing the work, and by taking care of her materials and others. Brin enjoys assisting others and does so in a positive, responsible way. Brin always has her materials ready and in a neat fashion. She includes others, uses kind words, and is patient and respectful to all. Thank you Brin for being so responsible!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Mason Schumm is an exceptional third grader who is kind, patient, and consistently tries his best. He understands and accepts that we all have our own responsibilities and he takes ownership of things that he needs to get done. Mason uses patience if something isn't going the way it normally does. He has a positive "I can" attitude and puts his best foot forward. Mason is determined and motivated, setting a great example for his classmates. He asks questions, focuses, and preserves even when tasks become challenging. Awesome work Mason!

Gr 3 - Mrs.Lindstrom. Our student of the month for Responsibility is Blake Gruenhagen. Blake shows responsibility by caring for himself, his belongings, and his surroundings. He is proactive in anticipating the needs of others and the classroom. Blake is responsible for his work and making sure everything is caught up on and done to his best ability. Blake is a huge help in caring for our classroom and is always eager to help out with any classroom jobs. Way to go, Blake!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Dockendorf. Jase Taylor shows responsibility in his schoolwork by using his time wisely and getting his work done. He also shows self control in the classroom, admits to his mistakes, and is always willing to help others. Keep up the good work Jase!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Since the start of school Lila Harincar has been an example of Responsibility. She is always listening to directions, following them and turning in her assignments on time. She also makes responsible decisions with her friends in and outside of the classroom. Lila is a great student to represent responsibility and I have appreciated having her in the classroom. Keep up the great work!
