

February Students of the Month - Honesty

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson . Our February Student of the Month for honesty and much more is Violet Beamish. In Kindergarten Violet shows honesty everyday. In addition she is a hard worker, a kind friend, and is tenacious! In the month of February, Violet shared with our Laker Proud group that in her heart she feels "Don't know what to do". This speaks to the feelings she gets when she isn't feeling quite confident in how to solve a problem or what comes next. This is a challenge that Violet has worked through throughout kindergarten But everyday we get to see this feeling shrink a little bit for Violet. She has grown so much throughout this year and has gained a lot of confidence and problem solving skills and we are so proud of her for this! Violet's reflection of her feelings, her honesty, and her growth this year make her our February Student of the Month and we can't wait to see where she will go!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong topic for February was Honesty. We learned that honesty is being truthful in what you say and do. I am pleased to nominate Greta Holm as our student of the month.

Greta demonstrates honesty in her work and through her actions. She is a very hard worker and brings a positive attitude to school each day. Greta is consistent, kind, and sincere. She brightens our school with her smile and kindness. We appreciate Greta and enjoy her company in our class!

Congratulations Greta!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Adams. Vera Mulholland practices honesty daily by being truthful in what she says and does in the classroom. She takes ownership of her actions and tells the truth when problem solving.

Keep up the great work Vera!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. The student of the month for representing honesty is Jaxton Homola. Jaxton tries hard to be a trustworthy student and friend to everyone in the Humphrey Elementary community. I can rely on him to make good choices and try to encourage others to do the same. Honesty is so important and such a valuable trait. We are very lucky to have Jaxton in our first grade class this year!

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Congratulations to our Student of the Month for February, Carson Hoelscher! Carson is known for his honesty and telling the truth, which we all admire. He is also very reliable, so his teachers and classmates can count on him to do what he says he will. Carson works hard in class and always brings his best effort every day. He sets an example for his peers by consistently demonstrating kindness and respect towards everyone he encounters. His enthusiasm for learning and positive attitude inspire those around him, making him a true role model in our classroom. We are so proud of Carson and all the wonderful qualities he shows! Congratulations once again, Carson, keep up the fantastic work!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. We would like to recognize Harper Werner as our February Student of the Month. The character trait for February is Honesty; being truthful in what you say and do. Harper displays this character trait in everything she does. She is hard working and always willing to help out in the classroom. Harper is an excellent role model for any student because she is kind, courteous and always trying her best. She is always the first to fix or clean up a problem in the classroom. She is an excellent student to have in the classroom.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Camila Harteneck is a wonderful example of how to live truthfully in your words, actions and thoughts. She chooses to be honest, even in difficult situations and clearly communicates with her teachers and classmates. We trust Camila because of her ability to be humble - she is always willing to share her own struggles and celebrations. Her choices are well thought out and she is a kind, caring friend to all at Humphrey Elementary! Way to go Camila!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Chase Green is honest in word and deed. Even when it is difficult, he always tells the truth and inspires others to do the same. I am thankful to have such a straightforward student.

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. Being an honest and sincere friend makes others feel cared about and special. When a friend uses their kindness and truthfulness it shows a strong sense of character. Evi Wendling sets a great example of what it means to cooperate with others, to be a kind friend, and to be the best 3rd grader she can be. Evi strives to know the difference between right and wrong and when it's time to step in and say something in order to help another student. She chooses to tell the truth and be kind every single day. Evi is a very grateful, honest, and cooperative 3rd grader who is a caring friend to many. Keep up the tremendous work Evi!

Gr 3- Mrs. Lindstrom. Etta Peterson is our Student of the Month for the character trait Honesty! Etta shows honesty in our classroom by always doing what's "right," even if she's the only one doing it. Etta looks for opportunities to be a role model for positive behavior and builds trusting relationships throughout the school. She is trustworthy and reliable in all she does, and enjoys being a helpful and dependable part of our classroom community. Way to go, Etta!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Dockendorf. Jaxson Matzke consistently stays true to himself, and is a very honest student. He is always looking to do the right thing in the classroom, hallway, during specials and at recess. He also always makes sure to look out for his classmates in a positive way. Keep up the amazing work Jaxson!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. "Living truthfully in your words, actions and thoughts". Eric Koch is a great example for his classmates. Eric is always one to admit to wrongdoing as well as being an example of doing what is right. Eric holds his classmates accountable for following the rules. Eric is honest with his words and actions. Great job Eric
