

March Students of the Month – Cooperation

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Avery Olson is our March Student of the Month. Avery is a team player in our class. She cooperates with her peers throughout the day and helps to achieve class goals. However, her ability to cooperate and even lead small groups is often seen during Free Choice time when she, and her classmates, build amazing structures and courses in play. Avery is kind and uses this kindness and problem solving to work through situations and build relationships needed to work on a team. Avery is a star at cooperation and we can't wait to see where she takes these skills in life!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for March is cooperation. We learned that cooperation is working together to reach shared goals. I am pleased to announce Michael Stoddard as our student of the month. He is one of the first classmates to invite others to join an activity, he uses problem solving skills, is mindful to share, and is supportive. Michael demonstrates polite manners and is a kind and helpful citizen both in our classroom and throughout our school. He makes us very proud! Congratulations, Ms. Ready

Gr 1 - Mrs. Adams. Westin Perra is our Student of the Month. Westin shows cooperation by playing with all students in our classroom and is quick to help others especially at clean up times. Westin is exceptional at making everyone feel included and welcome. Westin is patient, caring, understanding, and a great friend to others. Keep up the good work Westin!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. Student of the month is Jace Jacobson. Jace is a very cooperative student. He cooperates with his classmates and his teachers. If someone makes a suggestion or has an idea they want Jace to participate in, he is always up for it. Even if Jace is engaged in an activity or working with someone else he is very flexible and agreeable. It is so nice having such a pleasant and cooperative student in 1st grade!

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. We are thrilled to announce Oakley Hudek as our Student of the Month for March! Oakley was chosen for her exceptional teamwork and cooperation, always going the extra mile to help her classmates. She is a hard worker who never gives up, no matter how challenging the task. Oakley is always willing to give her best, whether it's a tough math problem or a reading activity, showing her commitment and enthusiasm. Her positive attitude and determination inspire those around her. Oakley is also known for her kindness and is someone who makes everyone feel welcome and included. Her efforts and attitude set a fantastic example for us all. Congratulations, Oakley, and keep up the amazing work!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. We would like to recognize Sunny Ingram as the March Student of The Month for Cooperation. Cooperation is working together and helping others. Sunny is a wonderful example of cooperation in the classroom. She is always eager to work with her classmates and contribute positively to group activities. Sunny listens attentively to others and shares their ideas in a kind and respectful way. She is quick to offer help when needed and makes sure everyone feels included. Whether working on a project or participating in a class discussion, Sunny shows patience and understanding, making her classmates feel valued in the class. Her friendly attitude and willingness to work together makes her a joy to have in class.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Letty Erickson is always looking for ways to help others! When she's finished with her work, she is usually found generously offering her time to help others. She takes time to make sure no one is left behind. Letty is an easy friend to work with too! She is flexible and kind and takes time to listen to others and share her feelings and ideas respectfully. Keep up the good work Letty!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. March (Cooperation): Aubrey Johnson loves to learn and she shares that joy with her teachers and classmates. She is willing to work with others, sharing throughout the activity. She works incredibly hard and always puts her best foot forward even when she isn't 100% confident. Thanks for your cooperation!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. The dictionary defines the word cooperation using the phrase, "working together." Diego Tabora Mejia does this on a daily basis in Mrs. Johnson's third grade class. When working with partners or small groups, it doesn't matter who Diego works with. He is always polite to those around him. You can hear him using his manners consistently. For example, if someone goes out of their way to help him, Diego makes sure to thank that person. Whether it's adults or kids, he works hard to act courteously and is respectful of others feelings and belongings. He stands up for others as well, knowing that part of cooperation is recognizing everyone's unique capabilities. His ability to cooperate in any setting is very apparent. Keep up the great work Diego!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Brayden Noethe is our Student of the Month for the character trait cooperation! Brayden shows cooperation by working well with others. He is respectful of differences and ideas. Brayden has a positive attitude towards working in a group and is always willing to problem-solve to overcome obstacles. He gets along well with others and is a positive and inclusive part of our classroom and school community. Way to go, Brayden!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Dockendorf. Our model of cooperation for the month of March is Colton Hasledalen. Colten has been a great example of leadership as he works together with others in his table group and in the classroom as a whole. Colton watches out for others and welcomes them into his working groups and makes a regular practice of including others. We appreciate his leadership in the area of cooperation and wholeheartedly nominate him as representative from our class.

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Cooperation is having the ability to work alongside other people. Aurhaly Moreno is always willing to work with other students. She plays fair and includes others in the morning, during recess and in small groups. Aurhaly is a good group member no matter what. She does a great job showing what cooperation is by including and working well with others. Great job Aurhaly!
