

May Students of the Month – Creativity

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Our May Student of the Month is Violet Beamish. When it comes to creativity, Violet is top notch. You will almost always find Violet at our Creation Station during Free Choice. She creates many different and innovative projects for her family and teachers out of odds and ends and scraps. Additionally, Violet is a creative problem solver and her creativeness also shines through in her jokes and jests. Violet is so talented and an all around joy of a child. We are thankful to have seen and helped her grow her creative talents in Kindergarten. We can't wait to see where she goes with these skills!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for May is creativity. We learned that creativity is using your imagination to create something new or solve a problem. I am pleased to announce Charlotte Karels as our student of the month. Charlotte uses creativity in her play and work throughout the school day. She enjoys using materials in unique and interesting ways and she brings joy to others by sharing things she creates. Congratulations Charlotte!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Adams. Karianna Klammer is our Student of the Month. Karianna shows her creativity through her artwork, building, and problem solving. Karianna is able to think creatively to reach her goals. Keep up the good work!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. My May nomination is Olivia Odendahl. Olivia shares many useful and creative ideas in the classroom, all of which promote positivity. She is a creative thinker, puts forth her best effort, and truly cares about her friends.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. We're excited to share that Joanna Steen has been chosen as our May Student of the Month, celebrated for her exceptional creativity! Joanna always shows a wonderful talent for innovative thinking, bringing new ideas to our class every day. Whether she's working hard on a class project, creating an original piece of art, or solving challenges with unique solutions, her creativity really stands out. Joanna's enthusiasm and imaginative spirit inspire her classmates and have a positive impact on our school community. Congratulations, Joanna, on this well-earned recognition! Keep up the amazing work!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. We are proud to recognize Cash Yager as our May Student of the Month for his outstanding creativity. Creativity means using your imagination to develop new ideas or solve problems—and Cash demonstrates both every day. He consistently brings creative thinking into the classroom and encourages his classmates to do the same. Cash is always willing to share his ideas and support others in discovering their own creative strengths. His positive attitude and encouraging words make our classroom a better place for everyone.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Jett Wendling is always thinking outside the box. Whether it is an art, science, math or reading challenge, Jett applies creative thinking! He uses his finely tuned and carefully crafted imagination to solve problems and create new things. Jett takes his time and adds many details to explain his creative thinking. We are always excited to see and hear about how Jett solves problems in class because of his creativity! Jett, you inspire us all!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Marianna Gomez-Sayadeth is creating, crafting, and thinking in creative ways. Whether it be an art project, science, math, or reading challenge she is always using a creative touch. Marianna makes a plan to execute carefully thinking through her projects. I have highly enjoyed seeing her work in creative ways and seeing what she can come up with. Keep being you Marianna!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Johnson. The citizenship theme for the month of May is creativity. Vayda Gilbert is a third grade student that shares her creativity with us in multiple ways. Vayda will use her imagination and artistic ability to create something new or solve a problem. She is a student that will think outside the box to complete work whether it be in math, science, social studies etc... Vayda gets inspired and is not afraid to try new things. She is creative in making connections to different topics/themes that are studied. She collaborates and works well with others, sharing ideas, and building upon hearing new ideas from those she works with. Vayda always creatively takes her time with her assignments and does her best. She also respects herself and takes great pride in her work. Thank you for sharing your creative ways with us at Humphrey Elementary!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Lane Kuehl is our student of the month for the character trait creativity. Lane shows creativity by embracing challenges, obstacles, and even every day class work with a creative mindset. He often offers a unique perspective while working through problems in the classroom. Lane works collaboratively with his peers and has a positive attitude towards learning. Lane is curious about the world around him, frequently seeking out answers to his questions. Way to go, Lane!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Dockendorf. Emma VanRegenmorter is our candidate for the quality of creativity in our class. She is a gifted artist, expressing her visual creatively in drawings and classwork. She does her best with ease when creating graphics, maps and math graphs.

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Throughout the school year Friedrich Koch has been an example for his classmates. He has shown leadership, patience, perseverance and creativity in his thoughts. Friedrich is thoughtful about the ways he approaches assignments and time with his peers. He also takes his time when working on projects, making them with his full effort.
