

September Students of the Month – Respect

Kindergarten - Mrs. Heuer. Evie Hendrickson is the student of the month in Mrs. Heuer's kindergarten class. Evie is very respectful in our classroom. She listens to the teachers and follows directions to get her work done. She tries her hardest to do her best work and tries to get it done on time. She is respectful of all people and of the things in our classroom. She is super polite and has amazing manners! Evie tries to do what is right and makes good choices for herself. She always has a positive outlook and attitude, which is shared with us all and we appreciate it! Congratulations, Evie!

Kindergarten - Miss Miller. Rosie Burkett is the student of the month in Miss Miller's kindergarten class. Rosie is very respectful in our classroom as well as others. She listens to all teachers and follows the directions she's given. She tries her hardest to do her best work, is always trying to get better, and completes work on time. She is respectful of all people and helps keep things organized in our classroom. Rosie tries to do what is right and stays positive! Congratulations Rosie!

Grade One - Mrs. Adams. Mila Hendrickson is the Student of the Month in Mrs. Adams's classroom! Mila is kind and considerate to her classmates. She takes care of our classroom and her supplies. Mila shows respect by listening to directions the first time and following the school rules. Keep up the good work Mila!

Grade One - Mrs. Pavlenko. I would like to recognize Avery Kelley as my Student of the Month for September. Avery is respectful to her classmates and teachers, giving them a warm smile, a friendly hello, or even a please or thank you for handing out materials. She is also excellent at assisting others if they need a helping hand, whether it's picking up their crayon box, finding someone to play with during Free Choice time, or showing them where to hand in their Wednesday folders and homework, and always giving them kindness and encouragement throughout the day. Avery is a great listener, reminding classmates to do their best and work quietly. She works hard at keeping her hands and feet to herself and staying inside her own workspace, yet is paying attention and participating in class often. She has been a wonderful example and an awesome 1st grader so far! Keep up the great work, Avery!

Grade Two - Mrs. Carlson. September's theme of respect has been shown by Emmitt Holker many times in the classroom. Emmitt continually demonstrates respect and expresses appreciation toward others. I noticed Emmitt respects his materials and items that belong to other students in the classroom. Emmitt cares for his classmates and is kind to everyone. I am excited to call Emmitt the student of the month for September!

Grade Two - Mrs. Eastling. I nominate Happy Yang as SOM for Respect! Happy is always participating and listening when the teacher is talking, giving directions, or working through a lesson. She is kind to fellow classmates and is always willing to help them out. She takes care of the classroom things and her chromebook. I can count on Happy to put away her materials correctly and immediately follow directions.

Grade Three - Mrs. LaMott. Congratulations to Ace Moses for being selected student of the month from Mrs. LaMott's classroom! Ace is very respectful in our classroom. He listens to the teachers and follows directions to get his work done. He does his very best work at all times. Ace is respectful of the things in our classroom and his peers' belongings. He does what is right and makes good choices for himself. He always has a positive attitude and a smile on his face. Congratulations Ace and keep up the good work!

Grade Three - Mrs. Wadman. September's theme of respect has been shown by Mason Donner! He is always kind to his classmates, listens carefully when others are speaking, and treats everyone with fairness and care. Mason shows respect by following directions, using polite words, and helping keep our classroom a positive place to learn. We are so proud of the respectful attitude he brings to third grade each day! He is going to have a great year in third grade!

Grade Four - Mrs. Gallagher. The September student of the month for Mrs. Gallagher's class is Laura Fasching. This month's theme is respect. We have talked about respect a lot! Laura can explain what respect is and she can share examples of it. She shows respect for herself, others, property and for learning and was the first to earn the "Respectful Rabbit," a desktop reminder about what an amazing classmate she is! She demonstrates respect by raising her hand and waiting her turn. Laura is helpful and kind to classmates and staff. She has qualities of a good friend and offers positive support to classmates. Another mighty great thing about Laura is her attitude towards school. She enters the room with a smile and is ready to learn! We are so glad to have Laura in our class! Congratulations Laura!

Grade Four - Mr. Goudy. My student of the month for September is Vaeya Nelson. Vaeya has come into 4th grade ready to work hard and have herself an amazing year! I have noticed that she is getting all of the classroom and building routines down quickly. On top of that, she has shown the utmost respect to her classmates, teachers, and other staff in our WES building. She also is a tremendous partner to work with in groups because she respects what everyone has to say and does a great job of listening. I think that is a quality we don't have enough of sometimes. I am looking forward to many more months getting an opportunity to be Vaeya's teacher, congrats Vaeya!
