

September Students of the Month - Respect

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Jace Hausladen is our September Student of the Month. Jace is respectful, kind, helpful and responsible in the classroom. Jace is always willing to lend a helping hand and is proactive in the help he gives his peers. When one of his friends came to school on crutches Jace automatically began getting two of every supply and delivering it to the friend for each activity we did. There was no need to ask Jace or help the student find a willing buddy. Jace's kind heart just reached out and supported his friend in need. Furthermore, Jace is a kind friend to all in our class. No matter his peers' abilities or areas of improvement Jace shows up with a gentle presence and kind helpful heart. His respectfulness, kindness, and helpfulness feel much wiser than that of a Kindergartener. We are excited to see where Jace and his kind heart go this year and into the future!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. I am pleased to nominate Julia Heuer as a September student of the month! The theme in September is respect. During our Character Strong lessons we learned that respect is seeing value in people and things & treating them with care. We learned how our actions affect others, to make respectful apologies, and to recognize when others are showing respect. Julia is respectful to her classmates and the school staff. She is a kind and hardworking student who brightens our days with her smile and positive attitude. Congratulations, Ms. Ready

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. I would like to nominate Aurora Gloege for September student of the month. Aurora consistently treats everyone with kindness and consideration. Whether it's listening attentively during lessons, using polite language, or showing care for others' feelings, Aurora is a role model in our classroom community. Aurora demonstrates respect by taking responsibility for her actions, following school expectations, and valuing everyone's ideas.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. Our September Student of the Month is Greta Holm! Greta has shown Respect every single day. She listens carefully and follows directions the first time, helps her classmates and teachers, and always uses kind words that make others feel happy and included. Greta's respect makes our classroom a better place, and we are so proud of her. Way to go, Greta—you are a great role model for our class!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. The character trait for September is respect. Respect: is seeing value in all people and things and treating them with care. Mrs. Bresnahan's Second Grade Class would like to recognize Olivia Odendahl as the September Student of the Month. Olivia is very caring and courteous to all her classmates. She shows great respect for teachers and students. She is always ready and eager to learn. She is always willing to help out a fellow classmate or to help out the teacher. Olivia takes responsibility for her behavior and actions. Olivia is a great role model for his classmates.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Reagan Jenson is a very respectful 2nd grader. She is conscientious of her choices, has courage to try new things, and shows she cares by taking care of people and things in and outside of the classroom. She shows responsibility and follows through with her behavior. Addison is helpful without being asked and is a diligent worker! Way to go Reagan!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Carson Hoelscher is a very respectful 2nd grader. Carson makes good choices and will always do what is asked of him. He shows respect to other classmates and teachers, caring about their thoughts and ideas. He controls himself appropriately and is willing to work with anyone no matter their differences or similarities. Go Carson!

Gr 3 - Ms. Johnson. Getting back into the routines of school can sometimes be challenging. One student in particular from Ms. Johnson's class has shown great responsibility and determination to be a positive citizen as she gets back into those routines. Charley Landowski lets others go first, says please and thank you, and lends a hand when needed. She is a well rounded role model with a positive attitude who focuses on being the best student she can be. Charley has shown a great deal of self control and willingness to be flexible in order to show success. Thank you Charley for keeping a positive mindset, showing others what it is like to be courteous, and remembering to use your manners when interacting with adults, as well as other students.

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Our Student of the Month for RESPECT is Jettson Wendling! Jettson shows respect by treating other classmates and tools in the classroom with care. Jettson is kind and polite, and is always willing to lend a helping hand. Keep up the respectful attitude, Jettson!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Gallus. Kennedy Berke-Vickla consistently demonstrates respect in and out of the classroom. She listens carefully when others are speaking, treats classmates and teachers with kindness, and follows classroom rules without being reminded. Her polite and thoughtful behavior helps create a positive learning environment for everyone. We're proud of the way she shows respect every day!

Gr 4- Ms. Krueger. Sophia Savoie listens carefully when others are speaking, uses kind words, and treats classmates, teachers, and property with care. She follows directions, takes turns, and shows empathy by considering how others feel. Sophia makes choices that create a positive and safe classroom environment where everyone feels valued.
