

October Students of the Month - Responsibility

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Our October Student of the Month for Responsibility is Emma Pokorny. Emma takes great responsibility in Kindergarten. She is prepared and organized for learning and always has what she needs to do her best. She is thoughtful and intentional in her work and as a friend. She also helps her peers be responsible by gently reminding them and helping them through kindergarten tasks. Emma shows us a love for learning, kind friendship, hard work, and a great moral compass each day. We are so lucky to have her in our Kindergarten class and can't wait to see all that she accomplishes!

Gr K - Ms. Ready. The Character Strong theme for October is responsibility. We learned that responsibility is to take action and understand the impact of our choices. Taking action can mean doing the right thing or completing the tasks you have been assigned. Understanding the impact of our choices means that our actions matter. I am pleased to announce Rosie Erickson as our student of the month. Rosie has earned this honor by demonstrating a high level of classroom responsibility. She takes pride in doing her best in each and every activity. She is responsible for herself and her belongings and can be found lending a hand to help her classmates in a friendly way. Congrats Rosie!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. Emma McIlree is a responsible first grader. She consistently follows classroom rules, takes care of her materials, and completes her work carefully and on time. Emma is dependable when given classroom jobs and always does her best to help keep our learning space organized. She shows great responsibility by listening attentively, staying on task, and being a positive role model for her classmates.

Gr 1- Mr. Paulson. This month, we are celebrating a student who shows responsibility every single day! They always come to school prepared with everything they need and are ready to learn. This student is respectful to their classmates and teachers, making our classroom a kind and positive place to be. They also understand that their choices affect others and always strive to make good ones. We are so proud to recognize Rhett Keskitalo as our October Student of the Month!

Gr 2- Mrs. Bresnahan. The character trait for October is responsibility. Responsibility: to take action and understand how our choices affect others, ourselves and the world. Mrs. Bresnahan's Second Grade Class would like to recognize Caiden Jencks as the October Student of the Month. Caiden is always ready and eager to learn. His school work is always turned in on time. He listens attentively to classmates while they are sharing. He is always willing to help out a fellow classmate or to help out the teacher. Caiden takes responsibility for his behavior and actions. Caiden is a kind hearted student, who is a joy to have in the classroom.

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. Oakley Hudek is a responsible member of her classroom and school community! She is mindful and takes action to understand how her choices affect herself and others. Oakley shows responsibility by following the rules, playing fair, doing the work, and by taking care of her materials. Oakley also shows responsibility by being mindful of others. She includes others, uses kind words, and is patient and respectful to all. Thank you Oakley for being so responsible - you are a beautiful example for us all here at Humphrey Elementary!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Weston Nendza is a responsible member of his classroom and school community! He is mindful and takes action to understand how his choices affect himself and others. He shows responsibility by following the rules, playing fair, doing the work, and by taking care of his materials and others. When a schedule is changed, Weston is always able to continue responsibility and not be affected negatively. He includes others, uses kind words, and is patient and respectful to all. Thank you Weston for being so responsible!

Gr 3 - Ms. Johnson. Vinnie Carr is an exceptional third grader who is kind, patient, and consistently tries his best. He understands and accepts that we all have our own responsibilities and he takes ownership of things that he needs to get done. Vinnie uses patience if something isn't going the way it normally does. He has a positive "I can" attitude and puts his best foot forward. Vinnie is determined and motivated, setting a great example for his classmates. He asks questions, focuses, and preserves even when tasks become challenging. Awesome work Vinnie!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Our student of the month for Responsibility is Brin Milz. Brin shows responsibility by caring for herself, her belongings, and her surroundings. She is proactive in anticipating the needs of others and the classroom. Brin is responsible for her work and making sure everything is caught up on and done to her best ability. Brin is a huge help in caring for our classroom and is always eager to help out with any classroom jobs. Brin also looks for ways to help other teachers around the school and loves to be a positive role model and support for younger students. Way to go, Brin!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Gallus. Bentley Engstrom shows great responsibility by always completing tasks on time and taking care of his belongings. He follows directions carefully and helps others when needed. Bentley is great at staying organized and keeping his area clean. We are proud of the way Bentley has shown responsibility. Way to go, Bentley!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Since the start of school Maya Bauman has been an example of Responsibility. She is always listening to directions, following them and turning in her assignments on time. She also makes responsible decisions with her friends in and outside of the classroom. Maya is a great student to represent responsibility and I have appreciated having her in the classroom. Keep up the great work!
