

January Students of the Month - Perseverance

Gr K - Mrs. Gunderson. Kali Homola is our January Student of the Month. In the classroom perseverance shows up regularly. In our classroom, Kali exemplifies this trait best. When things get hard, Kali doesn't give up. She rises to challenges and asks for help when it's needed. When she accomplishes a hard task she shows pride in herself and her work. It is amazing watching Kali grow and learn each day and her perseverance is a big reason for this delight. We are so excited to honor Kali with January Student of the Month for Perseverance and we can't wait to see what she accomplishes this year and ahead.

Gr K - Ms. Ready. In January we learned that perseverance is pushing yourself to work through challenges and obstacles. I am pleased to nominate Brenna Wotczak as our January student of the month. Brenna tries her best each day and asks questions when she needs support. She keeps on track to complete tasks even when things are tough. Brenna is creative to find solutions to challenges, keeps a positive attitude, and demonstrates a growth mindset (the power of YET). We are very proud of Brenna!

Gr 1 - Mrs. Myhre. Michael Stoddard is my nomination for January student of the month. Michael shows perseverance by never giving up, even when something feels tricky or challenging. He keeps trying, has a positive attitude, and believes in himself. Whether he's working on a tough math problem, practicing reading, or learning a new skill, he stays focused and gives his best effort.

Gr 1 - Mr. Paulson. This month we are excited to celebrate Henry Schwerin! Henry is a hard worker who never gives up and always gives his best effort. Even when facing challenges, Henry keeps a positive attitude and continues to try his best. He shows perseverance by sticking with tasks, learning from mistakes, and pushing himself to improve. Henry also treats his classmates with respect, uses kind words, and works well with others each day. We are very proud of Henry for being such a great role model in our classroom. Thank you for showing us what perseverance looks like, Henry!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Bresnahan. In January we focused on the character trait of perseverance, and Bethany Poure has shown what it truly means to never give up. We would like to recognize Bethany for always pushing through challenges, staying positive even when the work gets tough, and giving her best effort day after day. Whether tackling tricky math problems or working hard during writing time, her determination inspires everyone around them. We're so proud to honor her as our Student of the Month for perseverance!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Rice. January (Perseverance) Myles Erickson : Myles exudes perseverance in everything he does in 2nd grade! He never gives up - even when things are challenging or there are obstacles in his way! He works through whatever task is at hand with a "can-do" attitude, remaining positive, regardless of what the challenge is! Way to go Myles! You are a leader in perseverance in our classroom!

Gr 2 - Mrs. Shea. Wyatt Strehlow is a student who will work hard until the task is accomplished! He never gives up and will try and try again if he needs to. He asks for help if needed. This student learns from mistakes and understands that it's okay not to get things right the first time. He is always up for a challenge and will try his best. He exudes positivity and determination no matter the challenge.

Gr 3 - Ms. Johnson. Brevick Ritter is an exceptional third grader who is determined, focused, and uses a Growth Mindset. He understands and accepts the challenges placed in front of him and he takes ownership of things that he needs to get done. Brevick uses patience and perseverance when it comes to completing school work, along with being patient if something isn't going the way it normally does. He has a positive "I can" attitude and puts his best foot forward. Brevick is motivated and pushes his learning further. He asks questions, never gives up, and is willing to try new things. Awesome work showing responsibility and perseverance Brevick!

Gr 3 - Mrs. Lindstrom. Addison Coleman is our Student of the Month for the character trait perseverance. Addison shows perseverance by trying and doing her best, even when things are hard. She has a growth mindset and always tries again when things are challenging. Addison pushes herself everyday to overcome obstacles, and goes above and beyond to help others when they're feeling stuck or discouraged. Way to go, Addison!

Gr 4 - Mrs. Gallus. Throughout the school year, Grace Nyemah consistently demonstrated perseverance by continuing to put forth effort even when learning felt challenging. When faced with difficult tasks, she did not give up but instead asked questions, practiced, and tried new strategies. Over time, her determination led to noticeable growth in both her confidence and academic skills. Way to go, Grace!

Gr 4 - Ms. Krueger. Perseverance is doing or completing something despite the difficulty or time to achieve success. Dominic Schwarze shows perseverance each and every day. Even when learning feels challenging, he continues to try his best. He stays focused and asks for help when needed. I am proud of the effort Dominic puts in each day at school.
