To The 2026 Girls Track & Field Championships!

Since 1975, girls from Chicago Public Schools have competed for the Chicago Public League Track and Field Championship.

Defending CPL champions Whitney Young are chasing what would be their 11th straight title, but they'll have to hold off major threats from Lane Tech and Kenwood, while South Shore looms as a dangerous outlier capable of shaking up key events.

Here's a look at some of the featured performers at this year's city championships who will be trying for individual and team awards.

Girls 2026 Championship – Athlete Spotlight

The Girls 2026 Championship brings together some of Chicago's most disciplined, explosive, and mentally tough young competitors. Each athlete below has earned her lane, her moment, and her spotlight. Today, they race with purpose.

Vivian Tryfonopoulos – 3200m Run (Kennedy) A master of patience and endurance, Vivian Tryfonopoulos enters the 3200m with the calm confidence of a distance specialist. Her even pacing and late-race surge make her a contender from the gun to the bell lap.

Jordan Hamb – 100m Hurdles & 100m Dash (South Shore) Explosive, technical, and fearless, Jordan Hamb represents South Shore with unmatched versatility. She attacks the hurdles with precision, then turns around and unleashes pure top-end speed in the 100m Dash. A true sprint-hurdle powerhouse.

Ainsley Carter – 800m Run (Lane Tech) Smooth, composed, and fiercely competitive, Ainsley Carter brings Lane Tech pride to the 800m. She's known for her strong second lap and her ability to stay mentally locked in when the race gets tactical.

Kayla Riepe – 200m Dash & 400m Dash (Whitney Young) A dynamic sprinter with range, Kayla Riepe of Whitney Young dominates the curve in the 200m and powers through the full lap in the 400m. Her blend of speed and strength makes her a threat in both events.

Kamdyn Redway – 300m Hurdles (Kenwood) The 300m Hurdles demands rhythm, grit, and fearlessness – and Kamdyn Redway brings all three for Kenwood. Her stride pattern and ability to maintain speed between barriers set her apart in one of the toughest events on the track.

Isabella Chapin – 1600m Run (Lane Tech) Focused, tactical, and relentless, Isabella Chapin steps into the 1600m ready to control the race. Her consistent pacing and well-timed moves make her a standout competitor for Lane Tech.

These athletes don't just show up – they rise. They've trained for this moment, earned this stage, and now step into the 2026 Championship ready to compete with heart, pride, and purpose.

We cannot wait to see which athletes come out on top this season.

Thank you for attending today's City Championships. Enjoy!
