Special MVP Awards in Honor of...

Joseph “Doc” Casey

JOSEPH “DOC” CASEY OUTSTANDING FEMALE PERFORMANCE AWARD

Joseph “Doc” Casey was a local veterinarian from Boyce, Virginia, and the father of the former legendary multi-sport coach at James Wood High School, Jim Casey. “Doc,” as he was affectionately known, was instrumental in organizing athletic opportunities for youth in Clarke Co. and Frederick Co. in the 1940s and 1950s.

Additionally, Casey was a devoted volunteer at a local high school track and field meets as a timer and judge for over 25 years.

Otis “Snag” Sargent

OTIS “SNAG” SARGENT OUTSTANDING MALE PERFORMANCE AWARD

Otis “Snag” Sargent played football, basketball, and baseball at Handley High School, where he received his long-standing nickname, “Snag”, for his outstanding ability to catch football passes. After he graduated from Handley, Mr. Sargent returned to coach football, basketball, and track at his alma mater. His 1945 football team is one of only four undefeated, untied teams in Handley history. Snag Sargent later became the owner of Snag’s Sport Shop in downtown Winchester. As a businessman, he was very active in civic affairs and community service. Snag Sargent, a Winchester legend, succeeded in many endeavors and enjoyed the respect of his peers.

Mr. Jimmy Omps

Jimmy Omps, or “J.O.” as he is affectionately called, graduated from Handley in 1953 and returned to Handley in 1959 as a math teacher and assistant basketball coach. He later became head varsity basketball coach, athletic director, and director of student activities. His meticulous organizational skills and his work ethic served Handley athletics well for many years. J.O. is a member of the Hunter Maddex Hall of Fame, the Shepherd University Hall of Fame, and the Virginia High School League Hall of Fame. He has received numerous awards recognizing his talents and hard work in athletic administration, including national and state awards as High School Athletic Director of the Year.
