Administrative Reports

Superintendent Report:

Mr. Theilen discussed being able to acquire enough Covid tests to get through until Winter Break. The Christian County Health Department is out of tests at this time and hoping they will be back in stock when we return from break.

Discussed looking into the solution to the problem of the odor that is present in the locker rooms.

Principal's Report:

Mrs. Francis discussed how the staff has played a huge role in covering for absences and making sure classrooms are covered.

Final Exams were cancelled due to the number of students absent.

Homecoming week was a great success with the week's festivities, the game and dance.

We have a new volunteer in the elementary-Charity Fisher, to help the teacher with making copies, etc.

JH Volleyball held tryouts for the 5th grade girls to join the 6th grade team this year, due to not having enough 6th graders to form a complete team.

Esports is getting the room and equipment ready for the beginning of participation.
