VI.1. Administration Reports

Mr. Qualters presented the Principal's report.

- Parent/Teacher conferences were held on Thursday, October 23rd and 24th.
- The 2nd Quarter started on October 20th.

- The High School Volleyball Team ended their season on October 27th. They lost to Pawnee in the opening round of regionals that was hosted by Lutheran at UIS. They finished with a 20-14 record.
- High School Boys Basketball kicks off their season at the Mt. Pulaski Tournament on November 24th.
- The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony we had initially scheduled for the beginning of November has been postponed until January.
- We are reviewing the process and procedures used for membership into The Edinburg National Honor Society. | We are hoping these adjustments ensure the process and expectations are clear and equitable for our students.
- Mrs. Siemer took some FFA students to the National Ag Convention in Indianapolis. The convention was held October 29th-31st.
- The Booster Club's Casino Night was held November 15th.
- High School Softball — Riverton has been notified that we are not renewing the high school softball cooperative.
- Streaming: PlayOn! Sports contacted me about renewing the Pixellot contract.
- School Designation: We received our 2025 summative designation for the junior high and high school. Both schools were given a "commendable" rating.

Mrs. Francis presented the Superintendents report

- All 3 of our schools received commendable ratings, so congratulations to all. And we do have some areas of improvement that we will be setting some goals for.
- The maintenance grant is due at the end of January.
