VI.1. FOIA

VI.2. Administration Reports

Mr. Qualters presented the Principal's Report and discussed the following:

- Juniors will be taking the ACT on April 10th. Freshman and Sophomores will be taking the PACT during that time. Seniors, in lieu of attending school in person that day, may be able to participate in a college visit, career exploration, military visit, or community service project. Seniors will have a form they will need to have signed and returned.

- The 44th annual Lee Baker Tournament kicked off on February 14th. 16 teams participated in the tournament this year.
- There will be a High School Softball parent meeting this week.
- Coach Pop is working on the high school track schedule and is expecting approximately 20 students to participate.
- Student Council is hosting a Blood Drive on Tuesday, March 10th.
- JH students will be taking the IAR test the week of March 9th.
- Work will begin on next year's master schedule very soon.
- High School Boys Basketball was awarded the 7th seed in the upcoming regional. We will host the first regional game on Monday, February 23rd.

Mrs. Francis presented the Superintendent's Report and discussed the following:

- The HLS inspection has been completed. The violations were minimal and all required corrections have been addressed and submitted to the ROE HLS inspector.
- After the e-learning day due to illness, approximately 24% of our students were still absent on Tuesday. By Friday, that number had dropped significantly. Thank you to Randy, Jeff, Paola and John for their hard work disinfecting and deep cleaning the building during the e-learning day.
- Our elementary students recently celebrated Valentine's Day with their class parties.
- Thank you to everyone for their hard work and support in my absence as I recently navigated my father's illness and passing.
