Jr./Sr. High Principal Report

Kevin Qualters reported that student scheduling for the 2026-2027 school year is underway following completion of the master schedule. He shared updates regarding high school volleyball participation, junior high open gym opportunities, summer credit recovery, and recent student participation in the IHSA State Bass Fishing Finals.

Mr. Qualters also updated the Board on discussions from the June 4 Athletic Committee meeting, including ongoing exploration of cooperative opportunities for high school baseball and softball due to declining participation numbers, as well as development of a junior high track cooperative agreement with South Fork for the 2026-2027 and 2027-2028 school years.

Additional updates included the district's transition from Activity Scheduler to Arbiter and an overview of plans for the state champion Esports team's invitation to compete at the IHSEA National Tournament in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Qualters concluded by thanking Jenny Cooper for her dedicated service to the district.

Superintendent Report

Superintendent Ashley Francis reported that construction of the new Pre-K playground has begun and will assist the district in meeting PFA Grant and ECERS requirements while providing an enhanced learning environment for students.

Mrs. Francis also reported that soffit and fascia repairs are expected to resume in the coming weeks, weather permitting. She informed the Board that the district continues to receive Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests from the Data Branch regarding vendor purchasing records.
