

School Meal Notification for the 2022-2023 School Year

School Food Authorities (SFAs) will be returning to operating the School Breakfast Program (SBP) and National School Lunch Program (NSLP) in SY 2022-2023. Free school meals for all students are expiring June 30, 2022. Families will need to fill out a Household Application for Education benefits to qualify for free or reduced-price meals or pay full price for student meals in the 2022-2023 school year. After July 1, 2022, households will need to apply to receive free or reduced-price meals. Applications will be available after July 1, 2022.

Note: When the 2022-2023 JMC online registration opens you will be able to apply for free or reduced-price meals in that process or you may complete and submit a paper application.