

Snow is on it's way! In case there is an E-Learning Snow Day in the near future here is a learning grid for your child to complete.

Please do one activity from each row and color it in when you are finished. Return within two school days with child's name, adult signature & date.

Once this sheet is returned, your child will be counted present for attendance.