

Homecoming 2018

By: Chloe Farnsworth & Maddy Bulow

Homecoming 2018 was fun! Kasson Mantorville Schools have lots of festivities lined up for this year. Of course, each school has their dress-up days and fun homecoming activities. The annual pep fest was on September 28, along with the parade, homecoming dance, and most importantly the football game where Kasson-Mantorville took on the Stewartville Tigers this year. We started off the week with a couple competitions. A school-wide Rock Paper Scissors competition, and the tug of war tournament, which Mrs. Pagel's Junior advisory took home the trophy. For dress-up days, Monday was Color Wars. There was a flash flood on Tuesday! Everyone wore their rain gear to try to stay dry. Mom, dad? Is that you? Wednesday was dress up like your parents day. Be happy and spread peace! Thursday was hippie/ tie-dye day! Lots of rainbows brightened up the school. And of course, Friday was Komet Pride Day! The entire school showed school spirit! The coronation was also held on Friday, where Hunter Bradford and Kasie Gruber became Homecoming King and Queen! Then, we had the fun Homecoming parade. During the homecoming pep fest, the teachers gave us an amazing (and silly) performance. The school also got introduced to our two new foreign exchange students, Diego and Finn. Let's welcome them to Kasson-Mantorville. Then there was the volleyball game where the Kasson-Mantorville Komets faced the Goodhue Wildcats! Kasson Mantorville won, while the entire high school watched, danced, and cheered. After the game, school was dismissed and people got ready for homecoming football!

Kasson Mantorville faced the Stewartville Tigers. For the halftime show, the Kasson Mantorville High School Band played three songs by The Beatles, while the cheerleaders did a routine. The Komets won the game 42-14! Way to go Komets! But the fun doesn't end after the game... The high school had a Homecoming Dance. The students enjoyed good music, concessions, and a fun time with their friends. Overall Homecoming 2018 was a super fun week for everyone!

This year we have five new teachers at KMHS! Matt Franke, who teaches mathematics, used to teach in the middle school but has moved to the high school. The new-to-KM teachers are Marilyn Yennie, Elizabeth Averbeck, Shawn Bromelkamp, and Nick Pocius. Ms. Yennie, helps with the choirs in the high school and the middle school, along with helping some of the special education students. Ms. Averbeck teaches in the Social Studies department. Another new teacher, Mr. Bromelkamp, also teaches in the Social Studies department as well as working as a paraprofessional in the Special Education department. The last new teacher is Mr. Pocius; he is teaching in the Special Education department both in the high school and the middle school. We are very excited to see these wonderful people helping and teaching in the Kasson-Mantorville School District!
