Members absent: Krista Antoine, Francis Brandis, Joe Hockett, Alma Small

Others in attendance: Brett Gardner, Laura Root

Member Reports:

Mr. Morehart - Discussed enrollment and attendance.

Kim DeMers – Talked about Native American Day. Kevin Locke will present the day after Native American Day. She also discussed testing and the Imagination Library. Also, 3 or 4 faculty will attend the Indian Education Conference.

Sherry Lafferty - Talked about computer insurance, supplies and family fun night checks, and student incentives. K-5 will be included with attendance incentives this year as well and 6-12 attendance and grades. She is also happy for EWS and what it does for students. Finally, Sherry brought up the accreditation meeting.

Diane Kludt – Spoke about bullying prevention program. She and Val plan to use the Sandy Hook promise on inclusion.

Laura Root – Went over the Policies and Procedures for Impact Aid

DeAnne Felix – Says she is starting Hand Games and will take some students to the Indian Education Conference for the student panel.

Roger Milk – Wants all people in the Winner Community to work together.

Sylvia Bear -

Becky Sitting Bear – Parents need to send their students to School.

Brett Gardner – Thank you for letting him attend.

Val Ewing – Reported that seven seniors are on schedule to graduate. Girls group will start the 27th. There was a senior parent meeting last week. Free college application week is October 29-Nov 2 in which all WHS seniors may apply to 3 post-secondary schools for free.
