Member Reports:

Mr. Morehart - Went over enrollment numbers. He, Laura, and Kim went the Rosebud Tribal Education Meeting to give an oral report.

Tiera Axdahl – JOM has funding for alarm clocks. Tiara and DeAnne have been doing home visits. RST Ed is ready to present the new truancy law to the school board at the November meeting.

DeAnne – 23 kids in handgames and Lakota club combined. She is trying to get the kids into some youth handgames tournaments. She wants to go to LNI, but she needs a male chaperone to go with them.

Kim – NA day is coming up. Duane Hollow Horn Bear will be at the MS/HS. Joslyn and DeAnne will be at the Elem. Kim reported on how Title and federal funds are used.

Julie – School board meeting is Monday

Krista – Bus is much better! The meeting, signs, and letter helped! At the JOM board meeting attendance was discussed. Krista noted that several kids didn't know about the attendance incentives. She is having a youth meeting this weekend and will talk to the kids about attendance.

Val Ewing – Talked about ACES training on Oct 18. Girls group started this month. 15 girls are signed up 11 Native American seniors. 1 could be done at semester. Val is watching 1 very closely.

Financial Aid night is tonight. Della is coming to talk about tribal scholarships and financial aid.

ACT is changing the format to electronic, and students can retake a subtest instead of the whole thing. ACT is introducing a "superscore" which combines the highest scores in each subtest.

Sylvia – Worried about DF

Becky - nothing
