Members present: Val Ewing, DeAnne Felix, Sylvia Bear, Kim DeMers, Sherry Lafferty, Keven Morehart, Roger Milk

Members absent: Krista Antoine, Francis Brandis, Alma Small, Becky Sitting Bear, Joe Hockett, Marilyn Herman,

Others in attendance: Tiara from Children's court

Member Reports:

Mr. Morehart - Thanked DeAnne, Sherry, and Tiara for all the work they have done with attendance this month. We have seen improvements.

Kim – Jan 25th Officer Wendy presented Juuling and the 4th grade teachers will presented on the WoLakota project. The district is getting ready for testing.

Diane – Informed the committee of all the anti-bullying activities for the month.

DeAnne Felix – Handgames went to Huron. Lakota club and handgames continue to meet. She has been busy working on attendance with Sherry and Tiara.

Sylvia – The kids like Mr. Heth.

Sherry – Working on attendance incentives. K-5 are at the dollar store and 6-12 Shopko.

Roger – Asked how the school recruits Native American Teachers. Mr. Morehart explained where jobs are posted. Roger would like to see all kids treat each other with respect.

Val Ewing – There are 6 Native American seniors, and 5 are on track to graduate. There are 32 girls in girls group. The sophomores took the pre-ACT. Scholarship season is in full swing so Val's office is busy.
