Member Reports:

Mr. Morehart - Went over enrollment, 697; hand games for the MS, and a student at Job Corp. A special board meeting was held for Native American families on Nov 11. At the meeting Title programs, and Federal funding were reported. One parent had a question on jurisdiction of the bus.

Mrs. Kludt – The elementary is struggling emotionally with issues going on. In Bullying prevention, they are targeting hallway behaviors to show Warrior Pride. Mrs. Kludt is also giving the definitions of bullying. In December she will work on the pillar of respect. Red Ribbon week focused on safe and healthy lessons including vaping

Sherry – She is continuing to work on the truancy law and order code. They have a meeting Monday. She has been attending school board meetings in TC and St. Francis. There is money available for laptop insurance. They had a math in-service at TC – Bronson went. Their next in-service is Bridges out of Poverty.

The JOM board increased money for attendance incentives. Good is 1 ½ days absent; Perfect is perfect; both are for K-12 students. There will be cards to the dollar store. Students must be enrolled with the tribe. There is no set date for clothing orders yet.

Val Ewing – Last week was free application week. Students could apply to 3 colleges. The staff got in the spirit and Val decorated their doors with their alma mater's school colors. Staff were also asked to fill out a form about college life. Every day there was a trivia question for students to answer.

She met with Jim/Della/Rosemary on getting kids to college.

Girls group has been meeting.

2 seniors have transferred out.

Scholarships are ramping up.

There was a discussion held on ACT

Staff have had ACCES training and a movie is scheduled for Dec 13.

Sylvia – School supplies – backpacks – tree of life.
