Members absent: Francis Brandis, Alma Small, Becky Sitting Bear

Member Reports:

Mr. Morehart – Enrollment – decrease in HS Native American Students. Approved using ESSER money to add wrestling and cheer and dance room.

Winona – Wondering why some kids are leaving.

Kim – Great speakers coming in December. Kim is starting to work with MS students.

Diane - Spent October talking to Elem students about healthy choices for your body. Red Ribbon week went well.

Danielle – Has been contacting parents and has made some progress with attendance. She has also been working on Native American Heritage month.

Sherry – Would like to have a training on the process up to the truancy board. We will set up a meeting to streamline the WSD process.

Melissa – Trying to refine the process for attendance.

Marilyn – It is tough getting kids to school. Would like to see more contacts with parents in person.

Haley – She is working with Southern Plains to go into the classroom.

DeAnne- Lakota Club was on Thursday. They are studying the Lakota language. They have started hand games and are getting ready for LNI.

Krista – Would like more presentations in school about drugs. Maybe a regular system or at Family Fun Night. Sherry says that JOM can help some.

Val – Had a financial aid night. 43/44 seniors applied for at least 1 college in the state during free application week. Val also had a senior parent meeting to help parents realize what they should be doing each month. Girls group started. They will meet for a 2nd time next week. They will focus on proper use of technology and dealing with friendships. Scholarship season is starting.

Next meeting will be in December 8, 2021
