SAC Meeting Wednesday October 11, 2023

Greeting from Mrs. Ewing – First meeting of the school year. Enrollment is up and continues to grow. Good news.

Enrollment Summary – 783 students – up from 20 from last year

Business manager Root – reported on IPP -

Reports from Staff Members –

DeeAnn = No major incidents in August and September. One so far in October. Hand games were invited to the country club to perform for people from Australia. CCI invited them to do demonstrations for the residents. Would like for them to come back every month. Battle in the Hills Oct. 6th. High School place 3rd place and Middle School placed 2nd. Enjoyed the Native American Day presenter.

Diane Kludt- First grade has at least 25 students in each class. Red Ribbon Week is October 23-26. Homecoming went well. She talked about the school improvements concerns and do some brainstorming on how to get kids to school better and interact with the families better.

Getting teachers more involved in with parent meal days and giving the parents a better idea of what their children do on a daily basis. Focus more on elementary school.

Possible doing a mock schedule for the parents during orientation instead of just listening to the admin going through the handbook.

Merilyn – Having some issues with kids skipping and continuing to get worse

Danielle – Native American speaker went well. She went into the classroom and talked more about Native American culture. WES had their first grill out with the Beef to School program. She is going to start something new this year with the lower elementary kids. When they have more than 8 absences she will contact the teachers and plan a meeting with the families and work with them closer to help increase absenteeism's.

Val – Introduced Anne to the group. 10 Native American seniors. Absences are still an issue. Mr. Witte is having a zero tolerance policy with kids missing school. Free application month and she will work with the seniors tomorrow on that. Took the seniors to a college fair last Monday in Pierre. She feels it went well. Financial Aide has changed some and no one can apply for FASFA until December.

Haley – nothing major going on in the middle school right now. Absences have been a little better compared to last year at this time. Continue to send out letters after 8 days missed. Teachers are reaching out to the parents or guardians with concerns.

Reports from Community Members

Krista Antoine – Nothing really to report. She does not attend community stuff, but said that there was a movie night at one of the community halls.

Reports from RSTED – Sherry - Request that all reports be sent to Cindy and could CC Sherry as well.
