 "a nice car and save most for gas, college, and food" - Levi - "stocks" - Charles - "a new Lamborghini" - Taylor -
 "I would set myself up so that I wouldn't have to work for as long as possible" - Savannah - "something that's going to make me more money" - Matthew S - "I would give some money to the people who needed it. If there was any leftover I would buy myself something I want" - Morgan - "an island with a huge house on the beach" - Zach -
 "250 breed heifers and some new equipment for my family ranch, and of course a new Dodge 3500 pickup for me" -
 Tanner - "I would donate some of it to a charity and then buy a new house and car" - Lexie - "a big shop, '68 Ford Fastback and a Ford Raptor" - Blake - "a nice muscle car, and build myself a decent sized house to use as a "man cave" - Ian - "as cliché as it sounds, I would most likely donate half of it to a charity, the rest would go towards myself" - Aidan - "a house in Florida" - Brekkyn - "I would use it to go somewhere and shop" - Hannah H -
 "a house in California" - Macy

Class of 2018

The one food I couldn't live without is ...

"cheesecake, because I just really like it and I think it's amazing" - Michaela - "chicken alfredo, because it is the best tasting food ever" - Jonathan - "beef, because it's what for dinner" - Carter - "cuties, because they are mini, easy to peel, and very good" - Macie - "pork chops, because they are good" - Mason - "lobster, because its lobster" - Matthew H - "ice cream, because I am in love with it" - Daesha - "pulled pork, because it is delicious" - Zach - "cream peas, because they are healthy and delicious" - Levi - "my mom's jackpot casserole, because it is the best thing in the world" - Tanner - "Ramen, because it is so easy to prepare" - Charles - "chocolate, because it always makes me feel better" - Savannah - "cosmic brownies, because they're delicious" - Taylor

What is your biggest pet peeve and why?

Friday Night Lights

Senior Sam Naasz kicks the ball off to Bon Homme. Sam played four years of Warrior football and says his best memories revolve around the relationships formed with not only his teammates but players from all around South Dakota. Another great memory for all the seniors was being part of the 2012 State 11B Champion team. The senior football players only lost four games throughout their high school careers, leaving a lasting legacy.

Coach Dan Aaker said that going into the season he knew three games would be tough, so a major highlight this 2014 season was winning two of the three.

"The game on the road to St. Thomas More, and the crowd and atmosphere at the homecoming game against the top two teams in the state were also high points of this season," Aaker stated.

Looking toward next season Coach Dan Aaker said, "We return a pretty good nucleus of younger guys who received lots of playing time throughout the year and continually worked hard all season. The boys should be motivated by an early post-season loss this year."

"Football has definitely been something to look forward to each fall. My favorite parts are the sensations that run through my body as our team runs out on to the field and the adrenaline rush when my name is being announced," said senior Nick Hossle.

Setting the Standard

"Going into the season we knew that Miller would be the team to beat to go to the state tournament," said Coach Jamie Keiser. "We went to the Big Dakota Conference and beat them there, and won the conference. We were excited. We knew that all we had to do was beat Platte to get home court advantage for first regions, but we came up short. So we traveled to Mobridge, played really well and won. Then we had an exciting final region game match up with Miller, but we did not pull through. It was a season with highs and lows, girls trying new positions, and some underclassmen really stepping up to fill the spots when girls were injured," said Coach Keiser.

"My favorite position to play was in the back row. I really felt like I contributed more to the team. It is also fun to try something new. I have had an amazing volleyball career with these girls. I truly enjoyed playing with every single one of them all four years!" Senior Dusti Littau

The Winner High School Boys Golf Team ended its season on a high note placing 2nd in the conference. Without any seniors on the golf team this year, they are looking forward to continued success in the 2015 season.

"As the season progressed our scores improved. As the boys started golfing better and improving, their confidence started to rise, and towards the end of the year they were golfing some of their personal bests. Having some of the boys advance to State was a great way to bring it in. Looking towards next year most of these golfers will put in time in the summer and keep progressing," said Coach Randy Kludt.

"It was a great year to golf, we had a lot of fun at practices and meets. I look forward to finishing out my senior year with another good season with my teammates," said Junior Sam Hossle.

Running Wild

Some highlights from this year include winning the Winner Invitational, winning the Cougar Invite, Coleton Schuyler winning the SESD Conference Meet and medalling at State with 23rd.

"It was great to have so many new kids out to run this year. Overall we had eight boys. Having more athletes gives the team better chances to push each other at practice day in and day out," said coach Jayd Schuyler.

Junior Grant Winter is in his second year running cross country. Grant says, "I wish I would have ran my freshman year as well! Cross country is my favorite time of the year. I love running everyday with my friends and meets are a good time too."

Junior Colby Curtis turns the corner to finish the race at the Winner meet. The boys team took first at this meet.

Sophomore Izak Molenterno finishes down a steep hill to end the race.

Seventh grader Dawson Phillips

Senior Coleton Schuyler placed 23rd at the state cross country meet in Huron. Coleton said some of his main goals this year were to win conference and place at state and he did both.

"My big focus was to go hard everyday, because that's the only way to improve," he said.

Girls on the Run

It was the first year we were "Winner Area" with Jaclyn Laprath coming from Colome to run with us. Some highlights were winning the Winner Invitational and the Cougar Invite. Qualifying three to state was also a great accomplishment.

"We did a lot of different running this year. Starting off with base runs and transitioning into pace work. Late season everyone ran the 10 mile run from Colome. With seeing our best times at state, we definitely peaked at the right time." said coach Jayd Schuyler.

"My favorite part of cross country was finishing a hard workout with my friends everyday. Partaking in an encouraging, motivating team makes everyone want to go the extra mile. These last three years of running have been some of my best memories throughout high school!" said senior Sydney Schuyler.

State Cross Country Meet
Samantha Schuyler and Chloe Bartels competed in the state meet in Huron this fall. The weather proved a great day to run. Both the girls ran their best times of the season.

"I felt nervous at the start, looking either way there were girls packed along the line. The further I ran into the race, the more comfortable I became. It was a really fun experience and I hope our whole team can go next year," said Samantha Schuyler.

Better Our Best

"Our goal this year is to better our best, and increase our scores in all three dances. We have added extra tricks and stalls in hip hop, more movements in pom, and better visual transitions in kick throughout the year," said Head Coach Cyndy DeMers.

Not only did these dancers work hard at competitions, but you could catch them every morning at 7 A.M.; up and ready to put in work from slight facial expression changes to a whole new kickline. It paid off. Bringing home another runner-up trophy and a lot of excitement back to Winner, these girls not only placed second in the state with their pom, kick, and hip hop routines, they placed second overall in their division.

Traveling Companions

The competitive cheer and dance teams traveled together all year and shared a common goal: Better Our Best.

"With state coming up I hope all the stunts hit and our motions are sharper than normal," Sophomore Rachel Sherman said.

"My favorite part of the routine would be the ending pyramid because everyone is doing their job together as one," Sophomore Sidney Bohnet added.

"This year's cheer squad presented a great season with so many newcomers. They showed true spirit at the Homecoming haltime show and five competitions. The seniors will be greatly missed next year. It was a fun competitive season with these girls," said Coach Valerie Ewing.

The Warrior Way

It was a great year for the Winner Warriors. Highlights included making school history with the highest finish in the State Tournament (3rd), being Big Dakota champions, SEDS champions, and being Region 6A champions.

"Five seniors led us with leadership and hardwork day in and day out. We really concentrated on defense and rebounding everyday in practice. I felt that if we took quality shots and played well as a team that we had a chance to be succesful every night. Everybody from the starting five to our C teamers contributed to our achievements. Some great memories were beating Gregory, knocking off Murray County, and beating Cheyenne Eagle Butte in Pierre. We return with nice size, strength, speed, and outside shooting. Warrior Pride!" said Head Coach Brett Gardner.

We Believe

The Lady Warriors capped off another great season, finishing 17-5 and repeating as Big Dakota Co-Champions. Coach Larry Aaker said 2014-2015 highlights included big wins over Edgerton, MN in the Border Clash at Garreston and over McLaughlin to secure the Big Dakota title. The squad also defeated Wagner on their home court, a feat WHS hadn't pulled off in almost two decades.

Senior Kelsey Bertram, who led the Lady Warriors in almost every statistical category scored her 1000th career point and was named 1st Team All State and a finalist for Miss Basketball.

Senior Tyrel Haley said, "The best parts of wrestling were upsetting Marshall Swanson at state my sophomore year and all the practices that led to team success." Tyrel placed 7th this year at the state in Aberdeen. Tyrel said, "The best feeling is having your hand raised at the end of all the tough matches."

Eighth grader Wyatt Turnquist

Sophomore Kayleb Brozik during a match in Bennett County. Kayleb said, "Wrestling takes hardwork and dedication to make sure and maintain your weight throughout the season. It is all worth it though." Kayleb made it to the State Tournament this 2014-2015 season in Aberdeen.

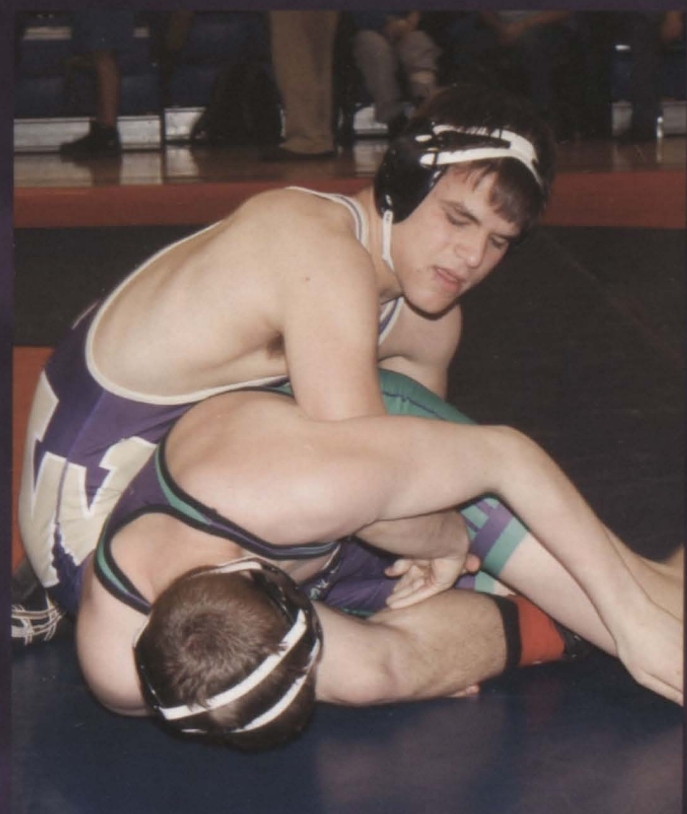

Freshman Ty Bolton competes in a match. Ty made it to state this year as a freshman. He has three more years to work towards placing in the top eight.

State Bound
Senior Tyrel Haley, senior Jimmy Sharkey, junior Cameron Biggins, sophomore Kayleb Brozik, and freshman Ty Bolton advanced to the State Tournament.

Junior Cameron Biggins tries to get into position to pin his opponent in a regional match. Cameron went on to make it to the State Tournament after this match.

Sophomore Jayden Schroeder said, "Wrestling takes a lot out of you during the season. It is a lot of work to stay fit, but once the season is over, you do miss it."

Senior Jimmy Sharkey placed 8th at state this year in Aberdeen. He put in a lot of time and hard work towards placing every year. Jimmy said, "A great feeling is taking someone down and knowing you're going to win."

Junior Colby Curtis wins a match in Stanley County. Colby said, "Running cross country in the fall really helped me start off in good shape for the season. Morning runs in the armory to make weight aren't so bad if you've experienced cross country."

Tee Time

The Lady Warriors had a phenomenal season, qualifying the team for State and recording several personal bests for JV and varsity golfers.

Head Coach Randy Kludt commented, "This group of girls worked hard and really came together as a team. The future of Lady Warrior golf looks bright on all as all of our State qualifiers were underclassmen." The girls placed 3rd as a team at regions and 11th at State.

Freshman Ronae Klein led the way at the State Meet in Madison, finishing 28th. Klein was also named Most Representative athlete for girls golf.

The team is all smiles after golfing a great Region Meet advancing everyone to the State Tournament in Madison.

On behalf of the Winner High School Yearbook Editors we would like to express our immense appreciation to Dan Bechtold, editor of the Winner Advocate, for providing us with so many pictures of students and different events throughout the year. We would not have the great coverage of Winner High School students' activities without his help.

Thank you to Sherry Bohnet, Sharon Naasz, Kristyn Schuyler, and Kara Connot who provided us with pictures of various events. The pictures were greatly appreciated!

An additional sincere thank you is sent to the Winner School Board for its generous financial support and to the businesses who bought ads to help defray the production costs of our yearbook.

Thank you to Darbi Nelson for helping with ad sales day. Also thank you to Mrs. Duffy for proofing pages, taking yearbook orders, and for allowing staff members to use her room as a place to work on yearbook. Thank you to Mrs. DeMers as well for helping with the Warriorettes pages and to all the coaches who provided scores. Thank you to Michelle Novak for creating amazing backgrounds and layouts, and to Kiersten Durrin for helping proof pages during the summer. Without them this book would have never been finished.

Finally, thank you to our advisor Mrs. Durrin for providing us with snacks and putting up with our crazy personalities. The yearbook would not be possible without her guidance and support.

We hope you all enjoy this book and that it becomes a treasure chest of memories from your time at Winner High School. We have enjoyed creating it and have learned many skills along the way. This is a huge undertaking and we are sure that next year's staff will welcome new members to the team.

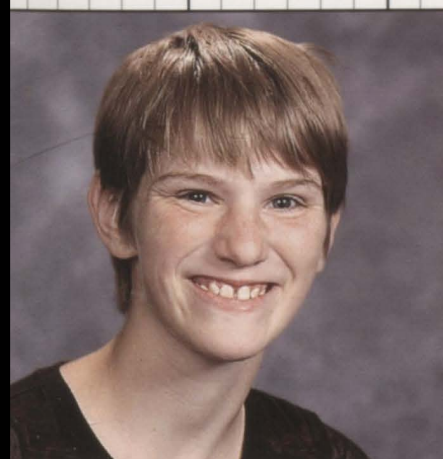

One of the best memories we will all take away from this 67th volume of The Warrior is the accomplishment of completing the book by our deadline. That makes all the long tedious hours of writing copy, making layouts, and PROOF-READING worth it.

Xingu

Introducing, Osric Dane!
Sophomore Jace Voegeli introduces junior Duncan English, who plays the beloved Osric Dane.

"How should we write this out?"
The ladies of the book club are writing a letter to Mrs. Roby, sophomore Kallie Foundray, suggesting her resignation, or else Mrs. Plinth, junior Molly Connot, will offer hers.

This place is boring, I'm leaving.
Sophomore Kallie Foundray's character, Mrs. Roby, suddenly leaves during the meeting for an appointment, only to be accompanied by Osric Dane to discuss Xingu.

Anticipation of the author's grand entrance.
The ladies of the book club describe, with great enthusiasm, who the great author Osric Dane is and why they're so excited for him to arrive.

The cast and crew of Xingu
Sitting: Molly Connot, Bethany Cable, Ronae Klein, and Eleanor Moleterno.
Standing: Sydnie Peters, Sidney Durrin, Jace Voegeli, Kallie Foundray, Duncan English, Mary Calhoon, Dan Patmore, Roger Wonnenberg, and Bailey Baker.

If we didn't have lights, what would we have?
Junior Sid Durrin and senior Bailey Baker were the sound and lights crew for the One Act Plays. After all, what's a production without our lights?

Artsy people like to read.
Junior Eleanor Moleterno gets bored with the conversation between the other book club ladies, and decides to begin reading a book instead.

"Hmm, what's Xingu?"
The ladies look in the encyclopedia for the definition of Xingu, since none of them know its meaning.

The president makes the decisions.
Freshman Mary Calhoon plays the part of Mrs. Ballinger, the snooty president of the book club that Osric Dane is visiting.

Look what we found!
Senior Angelica Laurent, sophomore Nick Blare, and juniors Janine Bartels, and Grant Winter take a good look at sophomore Trace Larson's body which they found in the closet after someone having moved it from the couch.

Is that blood?
Junior Janine Bartels, senior Angelica Laurent, sophomore Kenzie Irick, and senior Brody Woods notice the mysterious blood on sophomore Nick Blare's pant leg.

The cast and crew of Murder Well Rehearsed

Front row: Janine Bartels, Angelica Laurent, Trace Larson, and Kenzie Irick.
Back row: Bailey Baker, Jacob Woods, Dan Patmore, Nick Blare, Grant Winter, Brody Woods, and Sandra York.

It's the principal!

The cast finds Mr. Gleason's (Trace Larson) dead body in the theater, while the detective (Grant Winter) tries to find out what terrible thing could have happened in their theater.

"Jimmy, why do you look like a murderer?"

Sophomore Kenzie Irick, senior Angelica Laurent, junior Janine Bartels, and senior Brody Woods attempt to defend, or hide themselves from sophomore Nick Blare, who comes in with a crowbar.

His face is fake.

Members of the cast look upon Frank (Grant Winter) as Nan (Janine Bartels) pulls off his hat and fake face, revealing him as the one who murdered Mr. Gleason, the school principal.

Do different chemicals effect the soil profile?

Senior Casey Norrid and junior Windsor Barry decided to find out and take their findings to the State FFA Convention.

Twelve Angry Jurors

But if you think of it this way.
 Sophomores Jacob Woods, Trace Larson, and Nick Blare make small talk before they begin to debate the guilt of the boy on trial.

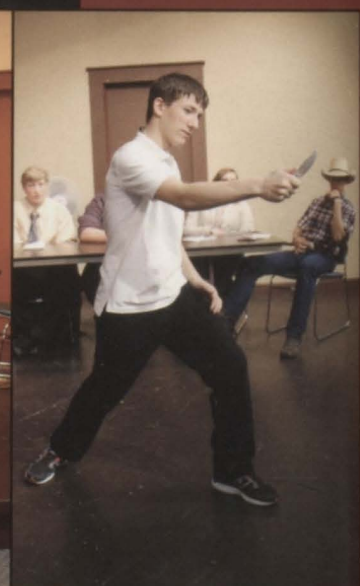

Now you listen to me!
 Freshman Matt Hartley tries to explain to sophomore Nick Blare why he is right and thus the accused man must be guilty.

Wearing a watch pays off
 Sophomore Kenzie Irick uses her watch twice to time the jury reenacting events for the sake of getting the evidence straightened out.

Harnessing their "Chee"
 The cast and crew of Twelve Angry Jurors. First row: Marcie DeHaan, Molly Connot, and Bailey Baker. Second row: Alex Meiners, Emily Moser, Kenzie Irick, Eleanor Moletermo, and Angelica Laurent. Third row: Tech Director Dan Patmore, Shannon Duffy, Mary Calhoon, Sadie Woods, Trace Larson, Nick Blare, Hunter Shopene, Jacob Woods, Duncan English, Brody Woods, and Directors Mrs. Connot, and Mrs. Assman.

This is the right way to use a knife.
 Eighth grader Hunter Shopene demonstrate how using a switchblade underhand is much more effective than overhand.

How to stab downwards
Juror #3, Duncan English, demonstrates the downward stabbing technique on Mary Calhoon, Juror #8.

Just your average sibling argument
Eighth grader Sadie Woods, yells at her brother sophomore Jacob Woods, for his rude speech.

Deep in conversation
Eighth graders Hunter Shopene and Sadie Woods and Sophomore Kenzie Irick deliberate the timing involved in the case.

"Those voting not guilty?"
Freshman Mary Calhoon, raised her hand, indicating the kid on trial was not guilty. Being the only one to raise her hand at the beginning of the discussion, she then convinced everyone else of the same vote.

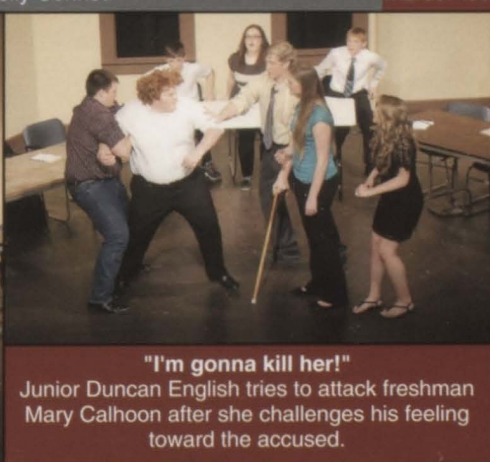

"I present the murder weapon."
Sophomore Alex Meiners carries out her duty as guard by presenting the jury with the knife used in the murder.

Premature wrinkles
Sophomore Nick Blare prepares for his role by putting on makeup with the help of junior Molly Connot.

She takes her job seriously!
Eighth grader Sadie Woods acts out the murder on freshman Matt Hartley to time how long the murder took.

It's an interesting knife.
Junior Duncan English examines the knife that someone snuck into the jury deliberation room.

"Not Guilty"
Junior Duncan English gets emotional because of his relationship with his own son when he is the final juror to change his vote to not guilty.

"I'm gonna kill her!"
Junior Duncan English tries to attack freshman Mary Calhoon after she challenges his feeling toward the accused.

"Maybe he was just looking for attention?"
Sophomore Nick Blare explains to his fellow jurors that the old man's testimony may have been exaggerated to attract attention to his unremarkable life.

Stupid Americans
Junior Eleanor Moleterno showed off her superior English language education by correcting sophomore Jacob Woods on a sentence he phrased incorrectly.

What would we do without them?
A special thanks to these three. The two in the windows, juniors Molly Connot and Marcie DeHaan, were the prompters. The cast definitely used them a lot! Dan Patmore is always there when the cast or crew need him whether it's building something new or renovating what we already have, Dan makes the play sets look amazing.

2014-2015 WORLD BEAT®

THE YEAR THROUGH YOUR EYES.

THIS YEAR

YOUR TOP PICKS

Topics included in World Beat were selected by students participating in a national survey.

WATCH IT ALL COME ALIVE

Augmented reality (AR) brings World Beat to life on your iPhone®, iPad® and Android devices.

STEP 1:

If Jostens produces your yearbook, use the ReplayIt® app to launch the videos. Go to the ReplayIt "More" menu and touch "Augmented Reality." If you haven't downloaded ReplayIt, visit the App Store. If Jostens doesn't produce your yearbook, download the Aurasma® app from the App Store.

STEP 2:

Open app, search for JostensWorldBeat, and select "Follow."

STEP 3:

Look for the  symbol and hold your device over the adjacent headline in each section to trigger the videos. Watch and enjoy!
