Government Mock Trial

Legal Dream Team
Shaneyl Nagel, Carson Covey, and Lorrin Anderson work together to take down their opponent hard!

Can we hear that again?
Taylor Long, Jacey Kreeger, and Tasha Welch look very interested in the goings on of the 3rd period mock trial.

What do you think about that?
Ethan Brozik talks to the jury members about what he thinks happened.

What a fine group of lawyers!
The 5th period lawyer group set aside their differences and posed for a picture.

Hang in there.
Kallie Odenbach tries not to crack under the pressure of her interrogation.

Let's go over the facts again...
Rachel Pahlke and Katrina Paulson look over their notes and decide on what to point out to the jury, judge, and the rest of the class.

What an outstanding witness!
Kari DeMers knew her part as the Sound Shop owner very well for the 5th period trial.

 of the heap and now sadly we will be at the bottom of the totem pole this next fall as we enter into college.

Farewell :'(

Ms. Jody Coburn, director of 5-12 Instrumental Music, thank you for everything! We appreciate your three years of service from 2008-2011 to the Winner School District. We wish you best of luck and prosperity in all of your future endeavors. We know that wherever you go, you will keep things stirred up and there will never be a dull moment!

All of us at Winner High School would like to wish Mrs. Paige Havranek, her husband Ritch, and her daughter Rowan all the best as they leave Winner for Ravenna, NE. Mrs. Havranek has taught a variety of English classes here at Winner High School for 8 years. She served as Newspaper advisor, Speech Activities Director, Quiz Bowl Advisor and as Co-Chair of the NCA Committee. Thank you for helping the students of Winner High School along their journey!

Thanks for all of your hard work!!
Mr. Mike Hanson, Superintendent of Winner Schools, will be leaving in June to become the Superintendent of Hill City Schools. He has been associated with the Winner School District for 17 years. He started out in 1994 as a language arts teacher at Winner Middle School. He was the assistant middle school principal and curriculum director in 2000-2001. He left for two years and came back and served as high school principal from 2003-2009. Mr. Hanson served as our Superintendent from 2009-2011. We will miss him and his family so much! Good luck Hanson's!

A Sad Goodbye

Last Students and Teachers in the Middle School

The Classes of 2015-2017 were the last to attend school in the Winner Middle School Building. The Winner School Board had to make a tough decision to close the middle school which was built in 1994. Due to financial difficulties, it became necessary. We all have so many great memories of recess, middle school dances, and favorite teachers. Thank you to all the middle school teachers and staff who helped us along our educational path.

Here at WHS attendance is very important. It is a very large part of the learning process. These students show that integrity. Pictured here are the WHS students who achieved perfect attendance during the third quarter of 2010-2011.

The End of an Era

The last students to attend Hamill School

The Hamill School, where countless students have been educated in over the years is located about 20 miles from the city of Winner.

The end of an era--that is the only way to describe it. The Winner School Board made the tough decision to close the last two country schools, Millboro in 2010, and Hamill in 2011. They made this decision because the school district is currently having financial difficulties. It truly difficult to say goodbye to this chapter of local history. We took a survey of the current Winner High School students to see how many had attended country school. Many of the country school students said that their favorite memory was recess. Others said snow days, not having to waste gas to drive to school, dodgeball, kickball, creating plays and performing them, field trips, and having small classes and learning to work together. One respondent even said his favorite country school memory was when a classmate got bit by a snake. Another wrote, "Gopher races was my favorite country school memory." Country school has left its mark on many Winner High School graduates for generations. We thank all of the past educators for inspiring countless students over the years.

Ernie Hocket

Ernie Hocket visited WHS spreading the message that you can be yourself without drugs and alcohol. He also shared that people have a path and it may seem long but it ends up shorter than you think when you make bad choices or are confronted with obstacles that take you off of the road that God has made for you. He also had different games and activities to demonstrate how easy it is to fall off of that path. Mr. Hocket even got principal Mr. Witte involved in the activities. Ernie was an exciting and riveting speaker that got many of the kids in the crowd thinking of the choices they make and how it can affect them not only now, but in the future as well.

Come on Mr. Witte, you can do it!
Mr. Witte has a lead on Mr. Armstrong, the principal at Colome, in Minute to Win It.

Life's Obstacles Senior Loni Vosika guides freshman Jamie Songer through a trail of paper plates. The plates were meant to represent all the obstacles in life, and that we all need a little help along the way.

Kevin Lock

Spinning while having dozens hoops in every possible position, Kevin Lock gave a very interesting presentation. He demonstrated hoop dancing. Surprising most students' expectations, Lock spun around as he moved the hoops in interesting and complicated shapes. After the dance, Lock went on to explain the significance of a few of the shape featured. Lock suffused his presentation with life lessons mixed with traditional Native American culture. Lock ended with having members of the audience attempt to hoop dance. These audience members proved hoop dancing is as complicated as it looks.

Float like a butterfly, sting like a bee!

Yearbook

Concentration is the key.

When you have over a hundred pages in the yearbook you have to work really hard like sophomore Kristin Maier.

2010-2011 Yearbook Staff

A shot from heaven!

Does this work?

Junior Brandon Winter looks through the thousands of the sports pictures to find the perfect one to put on his pages. You have to have a good eye to spot the good ones.

Memories from Yearbook this year

Saving problems

You just finished a whole page and now it says someone is on this page so you can't save it.

"I know your grandma"

Yearbook staff was working hard when out of the blue, we heard, "I know your grandma." No one knows the meaning.

Selling ads

The staff dedicated one day to selling ads to local businesses. Without their support this book would not be possible.

Long days during summer

The yearbook was not completed before school was over so ... there were many long days of working during vacation.

Thinking of captions

After having so many pictures to captions, we ran out of things to say.

Overworked?

Senior Clay Hoffman put all his energy into being a yearbook editor. Do you know it is difficult to come to school in the summer?

Why won't it move?

Sometimes those pesky text boxes or pictures will not move the way you want them to move, so you have to ask for help from other fellow yearbook members like sophomore Gavin Myers and freshman Emilee Engel.

Need a bigger screen?

Looks like sophomores Dani Ellsworth and Gavin Myers, senior Clay Hoffman, and freshman Matt Jensen are straining to see their small screen and wishing they had a bigger monitor to work on..

Yearbook Ad Team

And a single page ad...

Senior Clay Hoffman and sophomore Molly English go over the details of the ads that he sold on ad sales day.

Working hard, Lil' Red?

Will work for food.

Best Supporting Actress

Assistant Coach Chris Mayes, Zach Pederson, Shayden Drey, Forrest Cerv, Paul Temple, Tanner Moser, Austin Calhoon, Ben Connot, Nate Farley, and Assistant Coach Blake Nielsen.

It's a strike!!
Senior JD Farley hopes that his pitch is a perfect strike.

Hustle in!
Freshman Nate Farley hurries to get back to the the dug out after the last out.

And its out there!!!
Senior Tanner Moser watches to see where his ball goes after hitting it with all his might.

It's a UFO!
The baseball appears to float by senior JD Farley while he watches it rather than taking a swing.

WARRIORS

Junior Austin Calhoun slides into home just seconds before the ball making him safe.

Stretching or pitching?

Senior Dylan Donahue was caught in mid pitch, that looks a little like a stretch, during one of the games in Winner.

Wait for it...

Junior Taylor Haley waits patiently for the right pitch to come.

Okay, now remember...

Freshman Landon Engel gets some quick advise from assistant coach Blake Nielsen before the next inning.

Go big Zach!

Win on 3!

The team gathers for a quick pep talk from the coaches just before the start of one of the many home games.

The Winner High School Yearbook Staff would like to thank everyone who contributed their time, energy, photos, and funds to making this book a reality. A very special thank you goes to Betsy Senter, Dan Bechtold, Colleen Farley, Sharon Naasz, and Brenda Jorgensen for the use of their professional and personal photographs. We want to say a very sincere and heartfelt thank you for all of the financial support and generosity from the local businesses and the Winner School Board. Thank you to Mrs. Duffy for taking orders, proofing pages and being a great sounding board for ideas. The Editors would also like to thank the rest of the Yearbook staff for helping with all the creative captions and all your time after school and in the summer. Of course we can't forget all of the laughs we have shared throughout the year. To Mrs. Durrin words cannot express how much we thank you! With all of your help and for the snacks you made for us. (They were so yummy!) One very important and well deserved thank you goes to the students of Winner High School. Without you there would be no reason to make a yearbook. We hope you will enjoy this book now and keep it as a treasure of the memories you hold dear from your time at WHS!
