Dan Patmore 	Daniel Patmore graduated from WHS in 1977 and then went on to graduate from Mitchell Area Vo-Tech with a degree in Electronics. While in high school, with the encouragement of Jim Miller and Don Van Cleave, he became involved with the theatre group called the "Thespians." He found his niche as a member of the technical crew running lights and sound for the plays. When Dan eventually moved back to Winner, he was approached to help with "set stuff for the upcoming production "Hello Dolly." Dan was hooked and in 2001, he tech directed his first Winner Community Playhouse production. Dan has been the technical director for nearly every play since that time; approximately 50 productions and nearly 20 years of service. A few years after that, Dan was asked if he would be the technical director for the WHS plays. He accepted and soon became a co-advisor for the school's drama club, "Stage Fright." Dan continues to work with the high school productions and the drama club. He has also been seen on stage for many productions. He is a Member of the Winner Community Playhouse board and is currently president. Dan and his wife Coleen have 3 children; Arianne, Ross and Samantha.

Glen Novotny 	Glen Novotny graduated from Winner High School in 1981. After graduating, he started his farming and ranching career. In his first year out of high school, in 1982, he became the middle school wrestling coach. They held practice in the "dungeon" which was a small room in the basement of the school administration office building. For just shy of two decades, he devoted his time to the middle school wrestlers and continued to coach them until 2001. In 2002, he became involved in coaching the younger wrestlers in the Winner Youth AAU Program. During the next 20 years, he strove to teach every wrestler "the basics" and his booming voice could be heard throughout the gyms, coaching several wrestlers who were on the mat at once. Win or lose, he was always on the edge of the mat, right there with a word of advice or a pat on the back. He is a true Warrior Wrestling fan. He is proud to have coached three generations of wrestlers including his two sons, several nephews, and finally his grandson. He helped many young wrestlers get a solid start throughout his 40+ years of coaching. His family includes his wife Ruth, two sons, Nick and Spencer (Kaela), and two grandchildren Owen and Ivy.

Steve Moses 	Steve Moses is a 1969 graduate of Winner High School. While at WHS he excelled in sports as well as academics, graduating with a 4.0 and being first in his class of 132 students. Steve led the Warriors to the 1969 State A Basketball Tournament when South Dakota had a 2-class system, A & B. He scored 28 points and made the last second jump shot for the pivotal 60-58 win. That year he was named Third Team All-State for leading the Warriors in scoring (16ppg), assists, and steals. He was a member of the WHS Golf Team who placed third in the 1968 state tournament. In addition, he won his last three city tournaments and helped other country club members install the greens at the Winner Country Club. While in high school, he chose to play golf over baseball, but during his college summers he returned to Winner to coach the youth baseball program. He still has a love for those young athletes. Steve made the USD basketball team as a walk-on, started as a sophomore, and he was named the 1972 Conference Academic Player. After graduating magna cum laude, he served two years in South America as a missionary for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He has continued to serve in numerous lay leadership positions, including bishop. Steve and his wife, Cathy, have been married 46 years. They have five children and eighteen grandchildren. As a fourth generation Moses, Winner will always be home.
