

Harold C. Anderson Educational Trust Scholarship

The Harold C. Anderson Educational Trust Scholarship is awarded to graduates and/or residents of the Comfrey School District who are pursuing post-secondary education. Students may be eligible for up to $4,000 over the course of their post-secondary education. The scholarship monies will be disbursed to the Financial Aid Office at the post-secondary institution the student is attending. The check will be made out to the school and student. The student must go the Financial Office to endorse the check.

First time applicants:

1. Complete this application form.
2. Write an essay (word-processed, one-page, double-spaced) entitled "What life experiences have shaped who I am today and what challenges have I overcome in achieving my education" or "Describe an event in which I took a leadership role and what I learned about myself in that role."
3. Submit a resume of achievements and school and community involvements in Grades 9-12.
