AFTER THE SWEAT DRIES[™]

A unique approach to Educate, Inspire, Inform, Implement Life Skills and Create a Successful Future for individuals
- men, women, boys and girls -

seeking a career in sports who are currently participating at the academic or professional levels.
Every person, especially prospective athletes, should have a "Plan B" for life. Every "Chapter 1" needs a "Chapter 2."

IUPUI University Library Ruth Lilly Special Collections and Archives

ORIGINS OF AFTER THE SWEAT DRIES- GEORGE FRAZIER, FOUNDER

- George Frazier was always a dreamer and a visionary. He decided at a young age that he was going to be a professional basketball player. In third grade he was already signing his name “George Frazier Pro” for fellow students. With laser like focus George chased his dream to IUPUI where he played college basketball. After being injured reality set in and George realized that he needed a Plan B. This included starting his not-for-profit organization Hoops Express, Inc. His NPO was used to give under privileged children opportunities and to relay his message that they need to have a Plan B in place. Some of the children were receptive and others were not. This led George and Co-Creators Steve Perell and Eric Shapiro to create “After The Sweat Dries.” By design it teaches students and student-athletes to explore additional options. After the Sweat Dries will provide young adults with the tools necessary to provide for themselves and their families if Plan A fails. This program will empower, educate, and motivate our youth. When the last game is played, the crowds have left the stadium, and bright lights have been turned off - are you prepared for what’s to come After the Sweat Dries?

Origins of After The Sweat Dries- Steve Perell, Co-Creator

Born and raised in the Bronx, NY and Westchester County Steve participated in sports winning medals in Track and Field. He was also involved in scouting where he earned the rank of Eagle Scout.

After graduating from Lakeland HS in Lake Mohogan, NY he attended SUNY New Paltz earning a Bachelor's Degree and two Master's Degrees. Steve furthered his studies at Boston University, University of Nairobi and Syracuse University.

Steve spent thirty-four years teaching Social Studies in the East Ramapo Central School District in Spring Valley, NY. The last fifteen years as Department Chairperson at Ramapo HS. He spent an additional five-plus years teaching in other public and private schools as well as being an Adjunct Instructor for Syracuse University.

Steve was a track coach for a time and was Foreign Exchange Coordinator for the school district traveling extensively with students and family. Many former students keep in touch with Steve on a regular basis.

Known as a motivator Steve wrote curriculum for NYS as well as for the Regents Exam. Steve was honored for his efforts by being selected as the 1995-1996 NEW YORK STATE COUNCIL FOR THE SOCIAL STUDIES DISTINGUISHED SOCIAL STUDIES EDUCATOR.

Steve is an active participant in education conferences and programs. He has also worked extensively with student teachers.

Steve has been an officer and board member for numerous organizations including The Historical Society of Rockland, The Rockland Council for the Social Studies, The NYS Council for the Social Studies, KIWANIS OF SPRING VALLEY, NY, and Mended Hearts of The Lower Hudson Valley and Atlantis Florida.

"Working with George Frazier is a personal and professional pleasure. George is the creative mind behind AFTER THE SWEAT DRIES and his vision is a sorely needed addition to the education of our youth."

Origins of After The Sweat Dries - Eric Shapiro, Co-Creator

Eric Shapiro is a Newburgh NY native, his father was a doctor and one time President of the Newburgh School District Board of Education, so at a very young age, Eric learned what leadership and success looked like.

Sports was and continues to be Eric's first love. From little league baseball to Jewish Community Center basketball, high school and college varsity soccer, intramural college basketball and hockey, to coaching his high school junior varsity and varsity hockey teams, and then on to participating in various men's basketball and hockey leagues, sports have always been a big part of Eric's life. There's never a night without sports on the tv in Eric Shapiro's household! Eric holds a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology from Hamilton College.

During a 35 year career in the real estate and relocation industries, Eric has been devoted to education and "giving back." Whether helping families to find their dream home, or sell their life-long residence to be able to move on to the next chapter of their lives, Eric has understood the need to assist and educate people on the important decisions which shape their lives. Currently working in "Corporate America" Eric has the responsibility for coaching some of the largest real estate firms in the country, helping them to maximize their return on investment.

"After The Sweat Dries" can have meaning for everyone – in fact, no one is exempt! The importance of having a Plan B when Plan A comes to an end is not only beneficial, but should be positioned as a requirement for realizing a successful, fulfilling life. It's been an enlightening journey working with George Frazier on this project!"

Section IX Seeding Proposal

Qualification for Section IX Tournaments:

1. 500 winning percentage in division
2. 500 winning percentage in class
3. 500 winning percentage Overall
4. Committee Selection

*As far as Committee Selection: To ensure each sport has the same ideology and process, a team comprised of equal reps from both leagues will be put together. Perhaps league Presidents, Section IX Officers and League Coordinators. The decision of this Committee could be appealed by the school to the Executive Director.

Seeding Criteria:

1. Point Cards will be submitted on line based on a deadline set by each sports committee
2. Seeding is based on either your division points/# of division games or your overall points/ # of overall games played – whichever is highest.
3. The highest index of the two must be used. There is no choice between the two methods.
4. Any division in either league with less than four teams when the division games begin will only use their overall index.
5. Points will be earned for a win based on the chart below and in the case of a tie game, the teams will split in half the points from the number of points they would have earned if they had won the game
6. There are no negative points
7. The tie breaker for seeding is:
 - a. Head to head
 - b. Class points/# of class games played
 - c. Overall points/# of overall games played
 - d. Coin toss
 - e. In three 3 way or greater ties, after one team breaks the tie the remaining teams go back to the first criteria and continue until that tie is broken and so on until all ties have been resolved
8. For purposes of what constitutes a division game the definition is as follows: Division games are the teams in your division as assigned by the MHAL or OCIAA. If you play each team twice in your division and choose to play that team a third time only the games assigned by your league count as division games.
