KEYNOTE SPEAKER

DAVE GETTLEMAN

Dave Gettleman began his football career as a teacher/coach at Spackenkill High School in 1973. He left Spackenkill to assume a position as teacher/coach at Kingston High School in 1982. In 1985 he left Kingston to pursue a graduate degree while serving as a scout for the Buffalo Bills. Dave served in the scouting department of the Bills until 1993. During his tenure with Buffalo, the Bills appeared in 3 consecutive Super Bowls.

From 1994-97 Gettleman worked for the Denver Broncos, where he was primarily responsible for scouting talent in the east and southeast region.

In 1998 Dave accepted a position as a scout for the New York Giants. He was promoted to Pro Player Personnel Director the following year. In January of 2013, Gettleman was chosen to become the General Manager of the Carolina Panthers.

During his time with the Panthers, Carolina appeared in the 2016 Super Bowl achieving a record of 15-1 and won 3 NFC South titles. In December of 2017 Dave returned to the New York Giants as their General Manager. He retired from the NFL after the 2021 season.

During his career as an NFL executive he earned 3 Super Bowl Rings and was named NFL Executive of the Year in 2015.

Dave and his wife Joanne are proud parents of three children, Aaron, Sam and Ana Jane.
