

WIAA Rules 18.0.0 – 19.0.0

Many appeals are denied because the student, parents or school do not provide documents to support their claims of hardship or the hardship does not meet the basis for a hardship. The burden of providing evidence that a hardship exists shall be borne by the student.

_	s of eligibility regulations shall be considered for:
	☐ Extenuating, unique and/or new circumstances
	Circumstances must be different from those that exist for the majority or even a small minority of students
	Beyond the student's or where applicable, the parent's or legal guardians control ☐ Not the result of acts or actions by the student or family unit
	Deemed to have significantly influenced or contributed to the cause of the students non-compliance
Eligibili	ty requirements are typically not waived for:
	Academic or athletic deficiencies in a school including Running start for private school students
	Loss of eligibility in itself or an injury
	Transportation when attending school outside of school of residence
There s	hall be a direct, causal relationship between the alleged hardship and the student's inability to meet the specific eligibility rules.
	Time Frame corresponds with indicated hardship
	Direct correlation between the situation that caused the hardship and the timing of the transfer Circumstances or hardship were not in existence when initial choice was made to attend the school and was not something the family chose or was foreseeable
