Daryl J. Wurst was born in Lake City on November 20, 1951 and grew up in rural Lake City. He graduated from Lincoln High School in 1969 and served in the U.S. Army for 2 years. On July 7, 1973 he married Donna Grobe in Lake City. He worked at A.E. Goetz for 28 years. He was an active member of St. Johns Church in Frontenac. He was one of the charter members and past president of the Frontenac Sportsman's Club, a youth softball coach and member of the Lake City American Legion Post. He was an avid fisherman and hunter. Daryl Wurst was a best friend to everyone who knew him. He died at age 45 on May 31, 1997 in a boating accident on Lake Pepin.

Tony M. Possehl was born in Lake City on March 11, 1959 and grew up in Frontenac. A 1977 graduate of Lincoln High School in Lake City, he attended Red Wing Vocational College and worked for 21 years at Red Wing Business Systems in Red Wing. He was a member of the Assembly of God Church in Lake City. He was a charter member of the Frontenac Sportsman's Club. Tony was a marathon wheelchair racer and basketball player; he also enjoyed flying his ultra light plane. His can-do attitude toward life and his friendly smile was an inspiration to everyone who knew him. He died at age 40 on January 7, 2000 from complications of a heart surgery that he received years earlier.
