*Authorized drivers CANNOT be current students****

I authorize the people listed above to transport my son/daughter from any Wabasha-Kellogg away event. Drivers may be asked to show identification if unknown by the coach. Refusal to show proper identification will result in the student having to ride home on the bus. By signing this document I agree to release Wabasha-Kellogg School District and its employees and officers from all liability with reference to the above transportation statement.

Additional drivers may be added by the custodial parent/guardian contacting the high school office. Those listed above DO NOT need to fill out a release form for each event. However, the student, along with the person authorized to transport, must BOTH sign an "ok to transport" log carried by the coach before the student can be released. Again, if the coach/director is unfamiliar with the driver, proper identification must be shown prior to the student being released. I understand once the student and authorized driver have signed off the coach is, at this point, relieved of all responsibility of the student.
