Cary's Hamster

Snow Day

Cary has a pet of his very own. It is small and furry. It has twitchy whiskers and little black eyes. Can you guess what it is? You're right. It's a little hamster.

Cary named his hamster Hammy. He takes good care of his pet. He knows Hammy needs a good place to live. Hammy has a cage with a lot of room. There is even a little hamster house for him to sleep in. Cary keeps Hammy's cage clean.

Cary gives his pet water and good things to eat. He feeds Hammy dry pet food made for hamsters. Hammy likes fruit, vegetables, seeds, and tiny bits of raw hamburger too. He stuffs food in his cheeks and takes it into his house. He will eat it later. Cary likes to watch Hammy eat.

Hamsters need things to play with. Cary put a wheel and tubes in the cage. Hammy runs around his cage. He plays on the wheel and he crawls through the tubes. Hammy likes to tear up bits of paper too.

Cary knows not to wake Hammy up when he is sleeping. He knows not to play with Hammy too long at a time. Even a tame hamster like Hammy will bite if it is scared or tired.

Cary's parents say he takes such good care of Hammy that he can have another pet. What do you think that pet will be?
