Hauntings & History of the Emerald Isle

June Anderson

Experience History with a Paranormal Twist on an Armchair Tour Through Ireland. Ireland is famous for its “thin places,” a membrane or a thin layer between worlds that cross over each other. From pagan times to present, Ireland’s dark history has been recorded in its abbeys and churches, forts and castles, jails and graveyards by those who lived during those turbulent times and often perished because of them. Their ghosts are eyewitnesses to this history. Sometimes, they are the history.

The Child's Play Theatre - Mr. Toad's Mad Adventures, Gr. 1-8

The Child's Play Theatre

Adapted by Vera Morris from Kenneth Grahame's "Wind In The Willows." Toad of Toad Hall is an eccentric but likable chap given to 'crazes.' His latest craze involves motorcars. Unfortunately, he smashes them up as fast as he gets them. He even steals one for a wild ride over the countryside. Naturally, this gets him into a great deal of trouble. His dear friends Badger, Rat, and Mole do their best to help, but their efforts aren't enough, and Toad ends up in prison... after an uproarious courtroom scene. His imprisonment couldn't please his enemies, the weasels, more. They quickly take over Toad Hall and trash the place. Meanwhile, the jailer's daughter, Polly, thinks Toad is an exceptional fellow and helps him escape dressed as a washerwoman! On his way back home, he has a wild adventure with a barge owner who is horrified to discover the washerwoman is actually a toad. When Toad finally meets up with his friends again, they devise a clever scheme to recapture Toad Hall from the weasels in another wild scene. Tickets $5 at the door.
